“Jesus died for our sins not so that we could sort out abstract ideas, but so that we, having been put right, could become part of God’s plan to put His whole world right. That is how the revolution works.”
— N.T. Wright, The Day the Revolution Began: Reconsidering the Meaning of Jesus's Crucifixion

1. Does the death of Jesus on the cross impact you personally in any way? If so, what?
2. The cross is an instrument of torture and execution while being the most recognizable religious symbol in the world. How might our familiarity with the cross remove some of it’s meaning?
3. When Jesus declared from the cross, “It is finished” what do you think He was referring to?
4. What do you think the death of Jesus changed in the world?
5. How will you ‘take up your cross and follow Jesus’?
