“We become neighbors when we are willing to cross the road for one another. There is a lot of road crossing to do. We are all very busy in our own circles. We have our own people to go to and our own affairs to take care of. But if we could cross the road once in a while and pay attention to what is happening on the other side, we might indeed become neighbors.”
-Henri Nouwen

1. What have been some signals of spiritual emptiness for you in the past?
Ordinarily how have you dealt with them?
2. Share a story from your own life of a time when a stranger prioritized you.
What did that mean to you?
3. According to the parable of the Good Samaritan, who is our neighbor? Does that change the way you read Matthew 22:36-40?
4. Who are the people that tend to be the most difficult to love in your life?
Family? Strangers? Co-workers? Those with conflicting/mutual beliefs?
5. Name two ways you can become more aware of the needs around you today!
