“When we deny our story, it defines us. When we own our story we can write a brave new ending.” Brené Brown

1. Where in your life have you let ‘your story’ own you? Where have your failures or successes taken ownership of you? What role has your faith in Christ played?
2. Why is it easier to tell others to ‘get real with God’ then for us to hear it, and then embrace it?
3. Where do you need to get real with God? Get real with others?
4. Name one person that has been a significant ‘launch pad’ for your faith? How did they encourage you in faith? Where can you be the same for others?
