1. Reflecting on our messages from Romans chapter 12 over the past few weeks, what does the ‘renewing of our mind’ process look like for you?
2. Whom are the people you look to as examples of humility? How does it inspire you to action?
3. What areas of your life do you need to “measure” so that you can set realistic goals for change?
4. What makes interdependence so much more challenging than independence?
5. What’s one way you and/or your group can work towards unity?
6. Have you ever reflected upon your gifting? How does it match with the needs of the body of Christ (the Church)? How will you explore this further going forward?
