Home/Group Study

“In a pluralistic world, a religion is valued by the benefit it brings to its non-adherents.”

Dallas Willard

1. How is faith passed on from generation to generation? What do you think makes faith stick with a person as they grow into adulthood?
2. In 2 Timothy 2:1-2, Paul presents a multi-generational approach to faith and leadership development. Describe what that might look like today.
3. Why did Jesus structure his teaching style to the people he was trying to teach? What gets in our way of doing that same thing today when it comes to sharing faith?
4. Although all four spiritual questions discussed are essential, which do you gravitate towards the most? Why?
5. How can you begin to help youth and others find a faith in Christ that lasts a lifetime?
