

Three Questions
October 29, 2017

¹⁴ God said to Moses, “I am who I am. This is what you are to say to the Israelites: ‘I am has sent me to you.’” ¹⁵ God also said to Moses, “Say to the Israelites, ‘The Lord, the God of your fathers—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob—has sent me to you.’ “This is my name forever, the name you shall call me from generation to generation. Exodus 3:14-15

Home/Group Study

“The acid test for any theology is this: Is the God presented one that can be loved, heart, soul, mind, and strength? ... If it fails to present a lovable God—a radiant, happy, friendly, accessible, and totally competent being—before ordinary people, we have gone wrong.”
~ Dallas Willard

1. What or who has been the greatest contributors/influences on how you view yourself?
2. You have an impression of who God is and how God feels about you. (Is God angry with you? Disappointed? Demanding? Apathetic? Feeble? Pleased? Forgiving?, etc...) How has that understanding impacted the way you understand yourself?
3. How can you help someone experience a sense of belonging in your family? Community? Church?
4. How does you being made in the image of God impact the way you serve others who are also made in the image of God?
5. How can you take these three questions into account when you are attempting to share Christ’s love with someone?
