"The love of Jesus Christ dying for us is the thing that's supposed to move us to walk in love. What else would move you to walk in love? It was a sacrifice."

Timothy Keller

1. How has the sacrificial love of Christ impacted your understanding of God and your relationship with God?
2. Who do you know that has lived their life sacrificially?
3. Is there a part of you that you tend to hold back from God? Why keeps you from surrendering fully?
4. Why do you think so many people struggle with letting go of control over our own lives?
5. Why is service the natural expression of our worship? What holds you back from serving?
