Pope 1294 - 1203

“We declare, assert, define and pronounce to be subject to the Roman Pontiff is to every creature altogether necessary for salvation... I have the authority of the King of Kings. I am all in all, and above all, so that God Himself and I, the Vicar of Christ, have but one consistory, and I am able to do almost all that God can do. What therefore, can you make of me but God?”
- Pope Boniface VIII

Summary - Catholic Catechism on Pope

He [the Pope] can pronounce sentences and judgments in contradiction to the rights of nations, to the law of God and man...He can free himself from the commands of the apostles, he being their superior, and from the rules of the Old Testament...The Pope has power to change times, to abrogate laws, and to dispense with all things, even the precepts of Christ.

Dictionary Definition of Pope

"The Pope is of so great dignity, and so exalted that he is not a mere man, but as it were God and the vicar of God."

-Ferraris Ecclesiastical dictionary

12

Revelation 13

5 And the beast was given a mouth uttering haughty and blasphemous words, and it was allowed to exercise authority for forty-two months.6 It opened its mouth to utter blasphemies against God, blaspheming his name and his dwelling, that is, those who dwell in heaven.

13

Revelation 13

7 Also it was allowed to make war on the saints and to conquer them. And authority was given it over every tribe and people and language and nation, 8 and all who dwell on earth will worship it, everyone whose name has not been written before the foundation of the world in the book of life of the Lamb who was slain.

14

Revelation 13

9 If anyone has an ear, let him hear: 10 If anyone is to be taken captive, to captivity he goes; if anyone is to be slain with the sword, with the sword must he be slain. Here is a call for the endurance and faith of the saints.

Rise of Papal Rome

538 Vigilius ascended papal chair with full temporal authority by Justinian decree. Pagan Rome became Papal Rome. Emperor succession gives way to Papal succession.

16

Day-Year Principle

The day-year principle or year-for-a-day principle is a method of interpretation of Bible prophecy in which the word day in prophecy is considered to be symbolic of a year of actual time. It was the method used by most of the Reformers, and is used principally by the historicist school of prophetic interpretation

19

Near the Return of Christ

"And what further confirms that the sabbath of the world will begin near about the beginning of the seventh thousand years of the world, is because we are sure, it cannot be far from it. For we are coming near it already; so that the beginning of this glorious time, cannot be very far on this side." - Jonathan Edwards 1723

Revelation 13

11 Then I saw another beast rising out of the earth. It had two horns like a lamb and it spoke like a dragon. 12 It exercises all the authority of the first beast in its presence, and makes the earth and its inhabitants worship the first beast, whose mortal wound was healed. 13 It performs great signs, even making fire come down from heaven to earth in front of people.
