God Who Is Big Enough to Worship

"If God were small enough to be understood,
He would not be big enough to be worshipped."

Evelyn Underhill

8

Imagine you are a close follower of Jesus

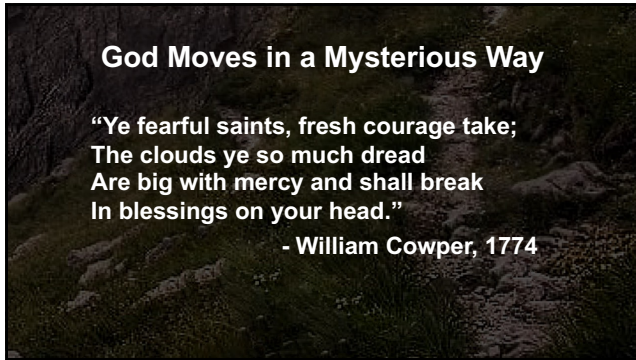

You are there at the cross, with a few of his disciples who have the stomach to watch. And you hear people say, "I've had it with this God.
How can He abandon the best man we've ever seen? I don't see how God can bring any good out of this. "

9

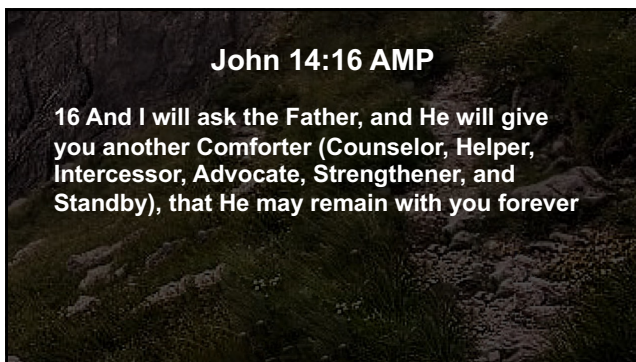

Unlimited Glory, Limited Understanding

You'd likely agree. And yet you are standing there looking at the greatest, most brilliant thing God could ever do for the human race. On the cross,
both justice and love are being satisfied—evil, sin,
and death are being defeated. You are looking at absolute beauty. But because you cannot fit it into your own limited understanding, you are in danger of walking away from God. Don't do it. Trust God.

Romans 12:4-8

4 For as we have many members in one body, but all the members do not have the same function, 5 so we, being many, are one body in Christ, and individually members of one another. 6 Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, let us prophesy in proportion to our faith;

20

Romans 12:4-8

7 or ministry, let us use it in our ministering; he who teaches, in teaching; 8 he who exhorts, in exhortation; he who gives, with liberality; he who leads, with diligence; he who shows mercy, with cheerfulness.

21

Romans 12:8

8 he who exhorts (encourages), in exhortation (encouragement); he who gives, with liberality; he who leads, with diligence; he who shows mercy, with cheerfulness.

Exhort/Encourage Greek: Parakaleo

22

Gift of Encouragement

The Gift of Encouragement, also known as the gift of exhortation, is one of the spiritual gifts mentioned in the New Testament. It is a special ability given by the Holy Spirit to uplift, motivate, and inspire others in their faith journey. This gift is essential for the edification and unity of the Church, as it helps believers persevere in their walk with Christ and remain steadfast in their faith.

23

How the Gift of Encouragement Works

1. Perceive the needs of others
2. Provide timely words comfort, hope reassurance
3. Empathetic with a deep understanding of the struggles of others
4. Speak into seemingly hopeless situations to remind of God's promises and faithfulness

24

Acts 4:36-37

36 And Joses, who was also named Barnabas by the apostles (which is translated Son of Encouragement), a Levite of the country of Cyprus, 37 having land, sold it, and brought the money and laid it at the apostles' feet.

25

Barnabus

Bar (son) Nabus (encouragement)

Jew from the tribe of Levi born in Cyprus as Joseph or Joses,

Apostle on missionary journeys as a companion of Paul the Apostle, evangelizing among the "God-fearing" Gentiles.

26

Acts 9:26-30

26 And when Saul had come to Jerusalem, he tried to join the disciples; but they were all afraid of him, and did not believe that he was a disciple. 27 But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles. And he declared to them how he had seen the Lord on the road, and that He had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus.

27

Acts 9:26-30

28 So he was with them at Jerusalem, coming in and going out. 29 And he spoke boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus and disputed against the Hellenists, but they attempted to kill him. 30 When the brethren found out, they brought him down to Caesarea and sent him out to Tarsus.

28

Acts 11:19-30

19 Now those who were scattered after the persecution that arose over Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to no one but the Jews only. 20 But some of them were men from Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to the Hellenists, preaching the Lord Jesus.

29

Acts 11:19-30

21 And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number believed and turned to the Lord. 22 Then news of these things came to the ears of the church in Jerusalem, and they sent out Barnabas to go as far as Antioch. 23 When he came and had seen the grace of God, he was glad, and encouraged them all that with purpose of heart they should continue with the Lord.

30

Acts 11:19-30

24 For he was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. And a great many people were added to the Lord. 25 Then Barnabas departed for Tarsus to seek Saul. 26 And when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. So it was that for a whole year they assembled with the church and taught a great many people. And the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch.

31

Acts 11:19-30

27 And in these days prophets came from Jerusalem to Antioch. 28 Then one of them, named Agabus, stood up and showed by the Spirit that there was going to be a great famine throughout all the world, which also happened in the days of Claudius Caesar. 29 Then the disciples, each according to his ability, determined to send relief to the brethren dwelling in Judea. 30 This they also did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

32

1 Thessalonians 5:11

Therefore comfort each other and edify one another, just as you also are doing.

33

Isaiah 35:8

A highway shall be there, and a road, And it shall be called the Highway of Holiness. The unclean shall not pass over it, But it shall be for others. Whoever walks the road, although a fool, Shall not go astray.
