Matthew 10:40-41

Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me.

to accept the presence of a person with friendliness—to welcome, to receive, to accept, to have as a guest

Honor Code

We honor others when we receive them according to their eternal calling

Luke 19:1-10

He entered Jericho and was passing through. And behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus. He was a chief tax collector and was rich. And he was seeking to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was small in stature.

Luke 19:1-10

So he ran on ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, for he was about to pass that way. And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for I must stay at your house today."

10

Luke 19:1-10

So he hurried and came down and received him joyfully. And when they saw it, they all grumbled, "He has gone in to be the guest of a man who is a sinner."

11

Luke 19:1-10

And Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor. And if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I restore it fourfold."

12

Luke 19:1-10

And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, since he also is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost."

13

Honor Others

1. Accept Others

14

Jesus Calls His Name

The Name Zacchaeus, an abbreviation of Zechariah which means "the righteous one".

15

Romans 15:7

Accept one another, then, just as Christ accepted you, in order to bring praise to God.

to take to oneself, i.e. use (food), lead (aside), admit (to friendship or hospitality)

16

Matthew 10:40-41

Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me.

17

Matthew 10:40-41

The one who receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and the one who receives a righteous person because he is a righteous person will receive a righteous person's reward.

Honor Ourselves By Faith

Faith is required to honor others because (at times) we are confessing qualities that are shrouded by weakness.

27

Honor Code

We honor others when we receive them according to their eternal calling.

28

Honor Others

1. Accept Others
2. Discover Others
3. Release Others

29

Honoring Others is Not

1. No Irritation
2. No Conflict
3. No Negative emotions

30

Ephesians 4:32 NIV

Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you.

31

Love Versus Hate

When you love people you find good even in their flaws. When you hate people you find flaws even in their good.

32

Release Others

1. Needing to be Perfect
2. Praise and criticism of men
3. To be Authentic

33

Chosen for this Moment

If I was chosen for this moment in the thread of life we call time, I will not rest until my divine calling to love others has been fulfilled to the utmost.
