No one is truly bored of peace, except those who are in alignment with what it is Satan is trying to encourage in our world today. However, there is a lot of rumbling about the Board of Peace which is the latest iteration of methods to try and bring peace to a part of the world that has not seen it since creation, prior to the fall.

The current status of the world makes this an incredible idea to be discussing. Per the International Crisis Group, there is not a lot of peace going down these days. They have a tool which monitors ongoing problems, globally. Their introduction to the tool states the following:

CrisisWatch is our global conflict tracker, an early warning tool designed to help prevent deadly violence. It keeps decision-makers up-to-date with developments in over 70 conflicts and crises every month, identifying trends and alerting them to risks of escalation and opportunities to advance peace. In addition, CrisisWatch monitors over 50 situations ("standby monitoring") to offer timely information if developments indicate a drift toward violence or instability. (International Crisis Group 2026)

Mark 13:7–8

“When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed; those things must take place; but that is not yet the end. For nation will rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will also be famines. These things are only the beginning of birth pains.” (NASB 2020)

In other words, it will get worse, just give it time. By the way, that is a sign of the approaching of the second coming of Christ, not the rapture of the church. There are no warning sings for the rapture as it is imminent and could take place at any second. But when you see the other signs happening everywhere all at once, look up.

First of all, why is there concern in the prophetic world about this Board of Peace? Most likely because, per the Times of Israel, there is “no mention of Gaza, which bolsters the Times of Israel’s reporting that the US also envisions the panel helping resolve other conflicts worldwide; member countries must pay $1 billion for permanent spot.” (Magid 2026) That alone leads to looking at it as a framework for the background of the First Seal Judgment of Revelation 6:1&2. It could be, but prophetically, the rapture has not taken place yet, the restrainer still restrains, so that would be the first issue. But it is interesting to read about and see what some say it should produce. Note the theme.

“The Foreign Ministers of the State of Qatar, the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan, the United Arab Emirates, the Republic of Indonesia, the Islamic Republic of Pakistan, the Republic of Türkiye, the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, and the Arab Republic of Egypt welcome President Donald J. Trump’s leadership and his sincere efforts to end the war in Gaza, and assert their confidence in his ability to find a path to peace...The ministers affirm their readiness to engage positively and constructively with the United States and the parties toward finalizing the agreement and ensuring its implementation, in a manner that ensures peace, security, and stability for the peoples of the region.” (The White House 2025)

United Kingdom Prime Minister Keir Starmer “We are all committed to a collective effort to end the war in Gaza and deliver a sustainable peace, where Palestinians and Israelis can live side by side in safety and security.” (The White House 2025)

Today, in an historic ceremony in Davos, Switzerland, President Donald J. Trump formally ratified the Charter of the Board of Peace — establishing it as an official international organization. President Trump, who is serving as the Board’s Chairman, was joined by Founding Members representing countries around the world who have committed to building a secure and prosperous future for Gaza that delivers lasting peace, stability, and opportunity for its people. (The White House 2026)

Back to the charter of this new organization. “The Board of Peace is an international organization that seeks to promote stability, restore dependable and lawful governance, and secure enduring peace in areas affected or threatened by conflict. The Board of Peace shall undertake such peace-building functions in accordance with international law and as may be approved in accordance with this Charter, including the development and dissemination of best practices capable of being applied by all nations and communities seeking peace." (Magid 2026)

Let me burst the bubble of some of the so called prophetic talking heads out there. Stop looking for the antichrist...please. We are still here and he has not been and won't be revealed until after we go (2 Thessalonians 2:3). Stop trying to guess who he will be, you do not know and all you do is mislead the flock.

And stop trying to create prophecy news out of normal things like an eclipse.

The reality, you are no better than the false teachers Paul had to deal with in Thessalonica.

Paul had to deal with folks in his time who went into Thessalonica and told them the rapture had already occurred and they were left behind. All a lie of course but the church had fallen under rather severe persecution and because of this false teaching, they were in desperate need of a reaffirmation of the truth.

We see the same false teaching going on today. There are those who say there is no rapture of the church before the beginning of the Tribulation, that is totally false. There are also those who say we are already seeing the Seal Judgments being opened, not really.

And then there are those who, every time there is an eclipse of the sun or the moon, tell us it is impending judgment. That is an extremely old idea. Orbital mechanics tells us when they take place, and you can look at the past and the future to tell when and where. My concern is when one takes place and it isn't supposed to do so. Or the day/night gets longer which has happened twice (Joshua 10:12, 2 Kings 20:10).

"When it comes to interpreting Bible prophecy, one of the more common problems is the tendency for people to view biblical predictions through the eyes of their own personal experience. The Germans call this a zeitgeist, a current mood or response to certain existing conditions. Thus, the great temptation for those who attempt to interpret prophecy is to move from the biblical facts to their own assumptions and speculations. As they view the future through the eyes of the present, their speculations can end up seeming like real possibilities.

The tragedy of all this is that instead of rejecting prophetic speculation for what it is, many Christians are often duped by it. What's more, those who attempt to guess the date of Christ's coming and determine the identity of the antichrist are claiming to know more than the authors of Scripture. Daniel Mitchell, professor of theology at Liberty University, has said, "Speculating on the date of Christ's return not only breeds bad theology ... it is the original sin all over again—trying to know as much as God." (Hitchcock and Hindson 2018, 32-33)

Jesus is indeed coming for His church at any moment. Yes, there is a massive convergence of the signs He said to look for regarding His second coming, an event which takes place at the end of the Tribulation. The shadows are indeed reflecting on us today pointing to the nearness of His coming to get us.

We need to be discerning of "popular teachers" who, every time there is a blood moon or a comet or whatever, begin predicting when Jesus will come back. There are those who simply report the information and allow you to discern what the scriptures are saying. Then there are those who ask leading questions to get you to make a judgment that they have already predetermined.

There are numerous videos on You Tube surrounding the theme of the rapture. If they tell you they can predict when, they can't. If they tell you they can show you the signs that it is near, they can't because there aren't any.

If you find a podcast that will take you step by step as to why the rapture should be today, don't bother wasting your time. Paul will tell us in 1 Thessalonians it is something he expected to happen in his lifetime, and we are to be living the same way.

Our lens is the scriptures.

Remember, the disciples thought they had it all wired about the coming of Messiah and what He would do. They missed so many of the obvious signs it isn't even funny when you look at it in retrospect. No one had the complete picture until Jesus taught it the evening of His resurrection. We forget that if Satan had the whole story, and he didn't, then he would have tried to stop it. Instead, he and his fallen brethren instigated the crucifixion not even knowing they were signing their own death warrants (1 Corinthians 2:8).

If that was the case, then guess what, the same principle of communications jamming may also be going on today.

Now that you know my personal concerns and worries, there are those things which I consider framework events, activity, potential Beast Tech and so on. Interesting to look at but we really do not know if they are or aren't, like the Board of Peace. Here is what the Bible says.

1 Thessalonians 5:1–9

"Now as to the periods and times, brothers and sisters, you have no need of anything to be written to you. For you yourselves know full well that the day of the Lord is coming just like a thief in the night. While they are saying, "Peace and safety!" then sudden destruction will come upon them like labor pains upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. But you, brothers and sisters, are not in darkness, so that the day would overtake you like a thief; for you are all sons of light and sons of day. We are not of night nor of darkness; so then, let's not sleep as others do, but let's be alert and sober. For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who are drunk, get drunk at night. But since we are of the day, let's be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and as a helmet, the hope of salvation. For God has not destined us for wrath, but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ," (NASB 2020)

We must guard ourselves from becoming complacent, and that requires us to be aware that everyday we are here on this planet is one more day of spiritual warfare engaging with an enemy who has already lost and who has no power over us except that power we give him.

Paul gives us the wake-up call here letting us know that we are not to be sucked into this idea of the world's version of peace or the world's version of security. We are not to be deceived that we can turn any nation back to the Lord, since that gives credence to the false presumption that they ever were a nation following the Lord to begin with. They weren't. We are not to be deceived that we can obtain all of this here right now by exercising dominion over the political process, the law and the culture. Satan already has examples of that for us globally in Islamic sharia law-based nations so we can see how well that works.

The only thing that will work is when Jesus Christ returns to this planet and takes over. He will be the one who rules with an iron rod. That is real peace and safety. All we are seeing currently is a reoffer from Satan of what Jesus rejected. There is nothing new here and Paul is telling us we know better since we will not be caught unawares. The world will be, but not us.

Of course, the world wants peace and safety, but 70 conflicts globally, currently tells me that without Jesus, that is not going to happen. We keep watching and waiting for His return, what an exciting time to live. Let's pray.
