

1. There is still a _____ home.
2. Sometimes we want what's in the Father's _____ without really wanting the Father's _____.
3. Sin never shows you the _____ at the beginning.
4. Sin will always take you _____ than you intended to go and keep you _____ than you intended on staying.
5. Sin promises _____ and eventually sends you the _____.
6. The pigpen was his _____. It wasn't his _____.
7. Where you've been does not determine where you're _____.
8. Your worst chapter doesn't have to become your _____ chapter.
9. "I don't have to _____ like this anymore."
10. There is still a _____, and there is still a road home.
11. You can cry in the pigpen and still _____ in the pigpen.
12. Repentance isn't simply feeling bad about where you've been; repentance means changing _____.
13. You don't clean yourself up so you can come _____. You come home so the Father can _____ you.
14. While the son was still a long way off, the Father saw him, felt compassion, and _____.
15. _____ runs down the road.
16. The son came home hoping to become a servant, but the Father still saw a _____.
17. Jesus came to bring us _____.
18. The greatest comeback in history made _____ comeback possible.
19. The pigpen doesn't get the final word. Failure doesn't get the final word. Your past doesn't get the final word. _____ does.