Love

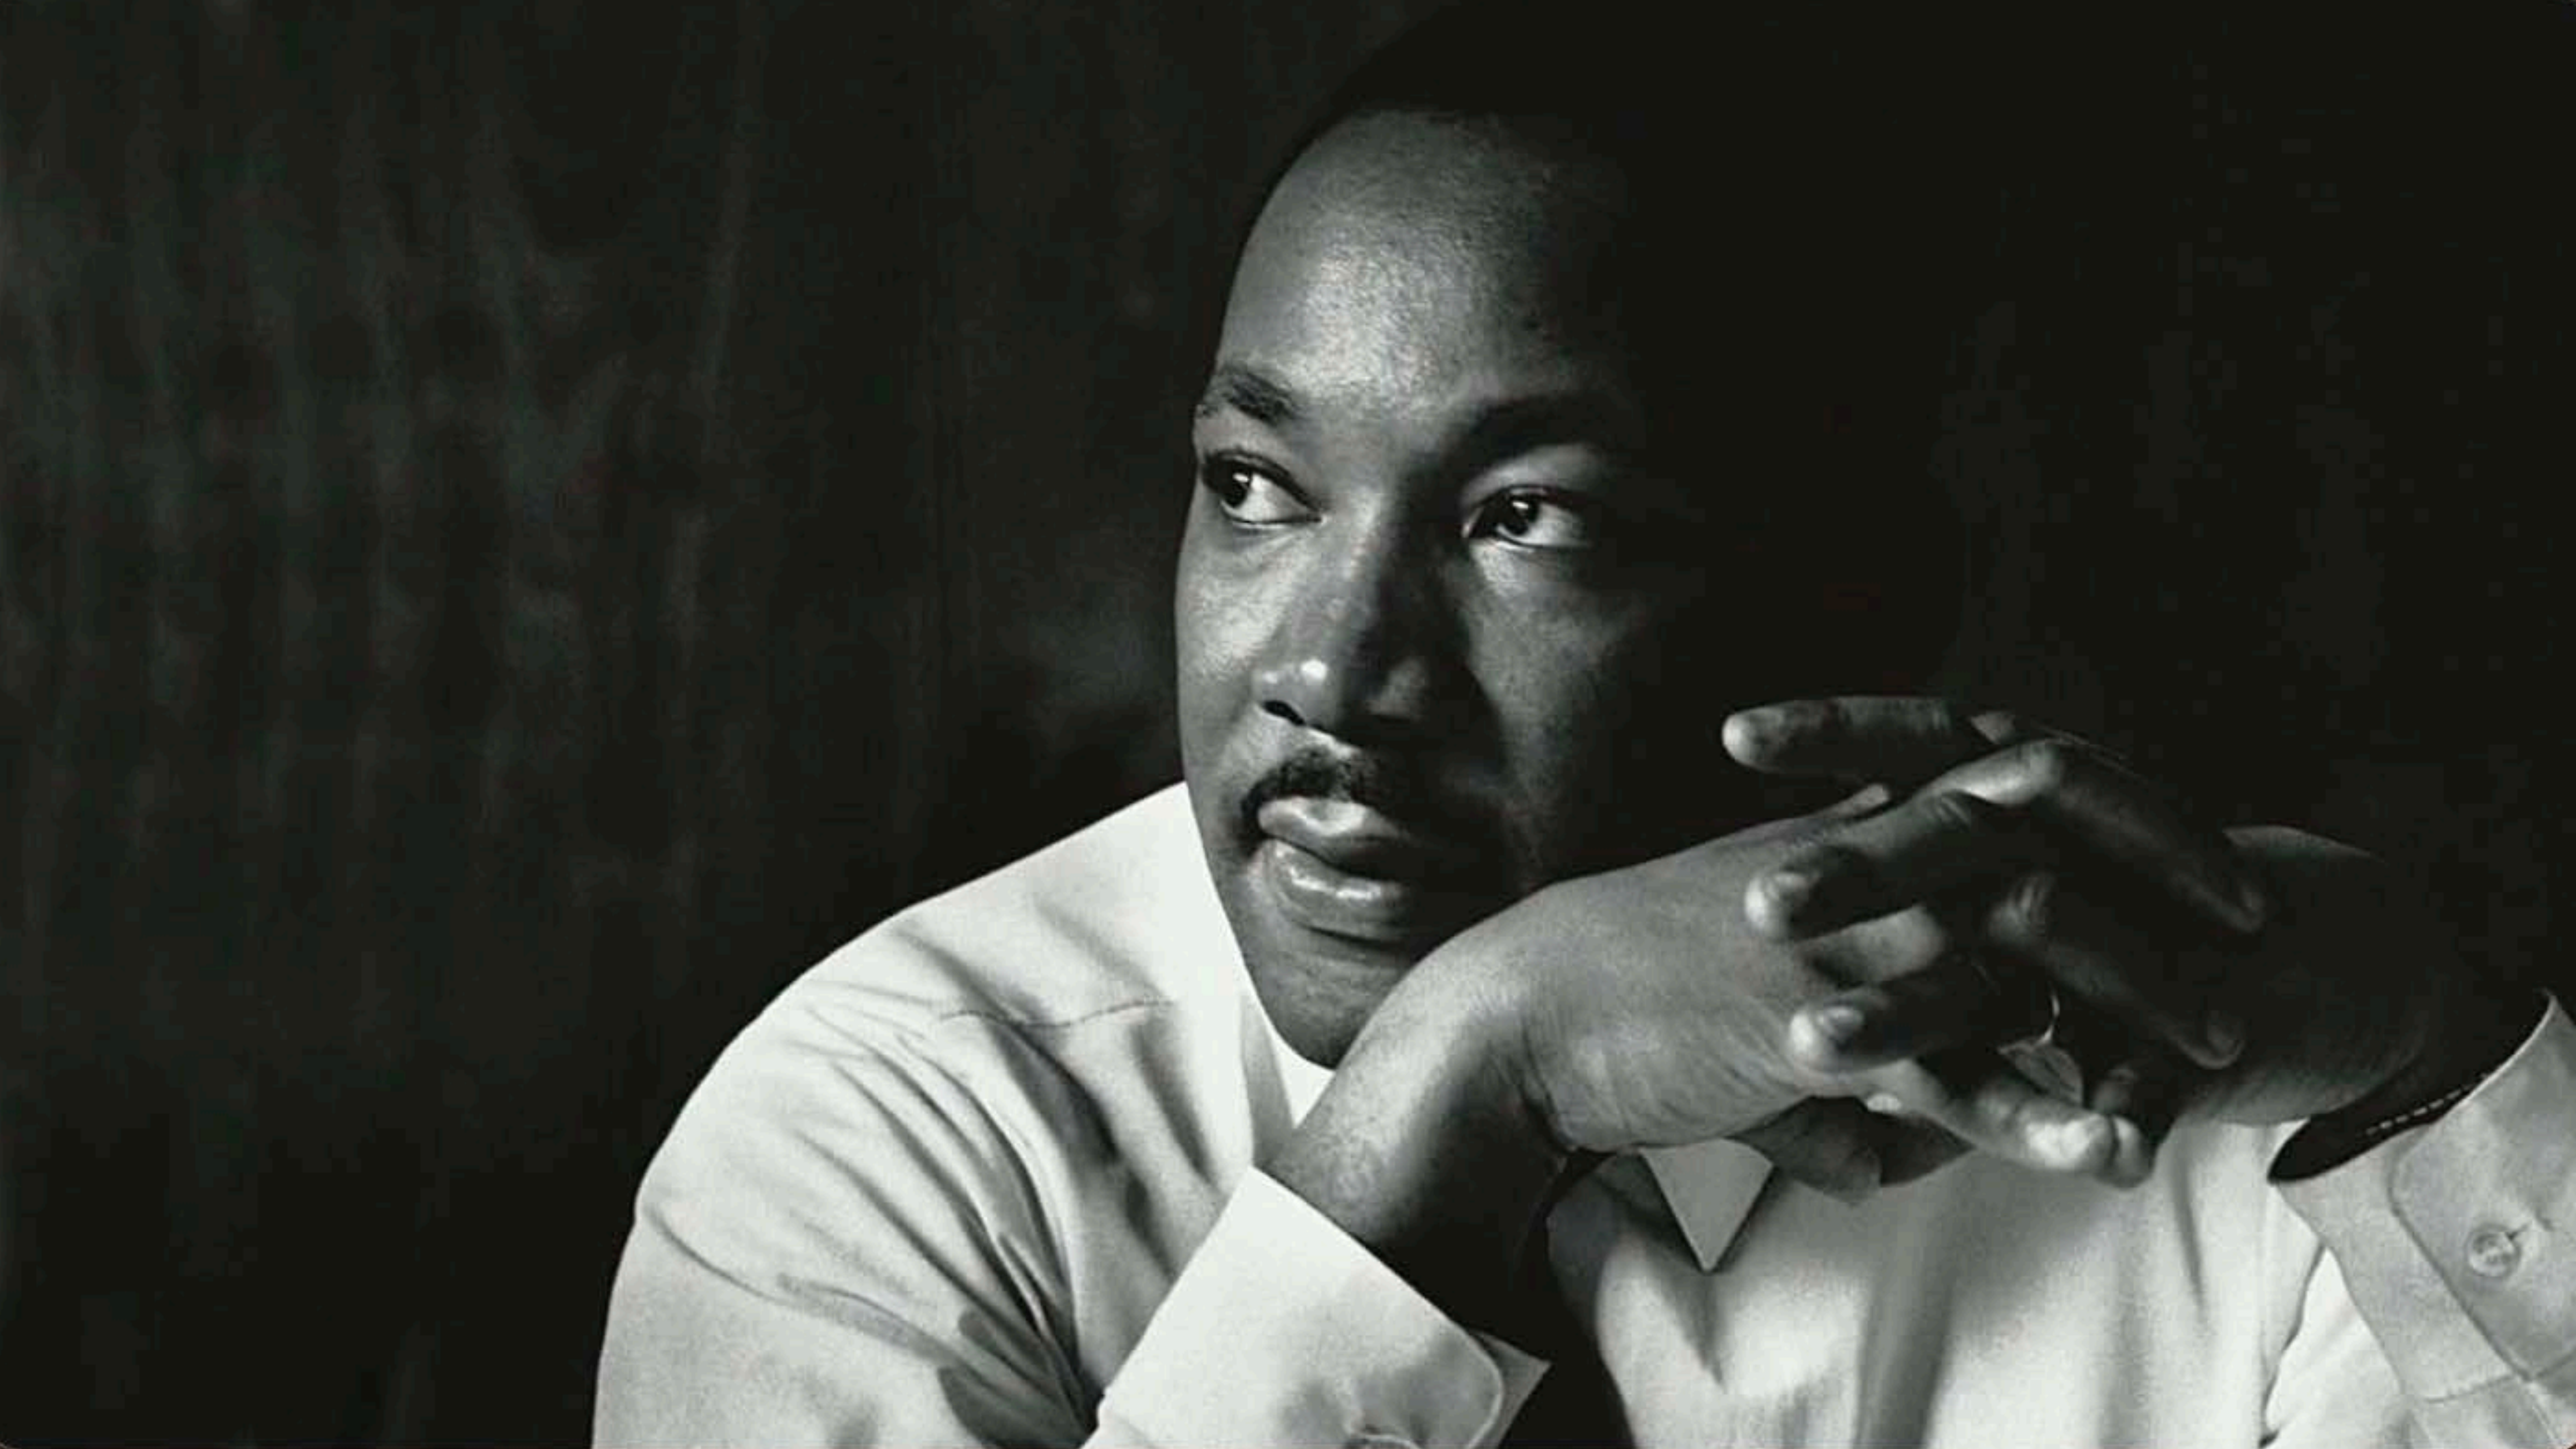

P2

“Of all the commandments, which is the most important?” [Jesus answered] “Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength...”

(Mark 12:28b, 29a, 30, NIV)

“The second is this: “Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no commandment greater than these.”

(Mark 12:31, NIV)

A supernaturally changed life...

1. Is not the same as a
gifted life

2. Is not the same as a moral life

“If I give all I possess to the poor and give over my body to the flames that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.”

(1 Corinthians 13:3, NIV)

“Follow the way of love and eagerly
desire spiritual gifts...”

(1 Corinthians 14:1, NIV)

“Follow the way of love and eagerly
desire spiritual gifts...”

(1 Corinthians 14:1, NIV)

3. Is about relational transformation

“Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs...”

(1 Corinthians 13:4, NIV)

Biblical spirituality is not just:

Biblical spirituality is not just:

I am feeling peaceful

Biblical spirituality is not just:

I am feeling peaceful

I am serene

Biblical spirituality is not just:

I am feeling peaceful

I am serene

I am blissful

Why does religion sometimes make people worse?

How we teach our children
to behave:

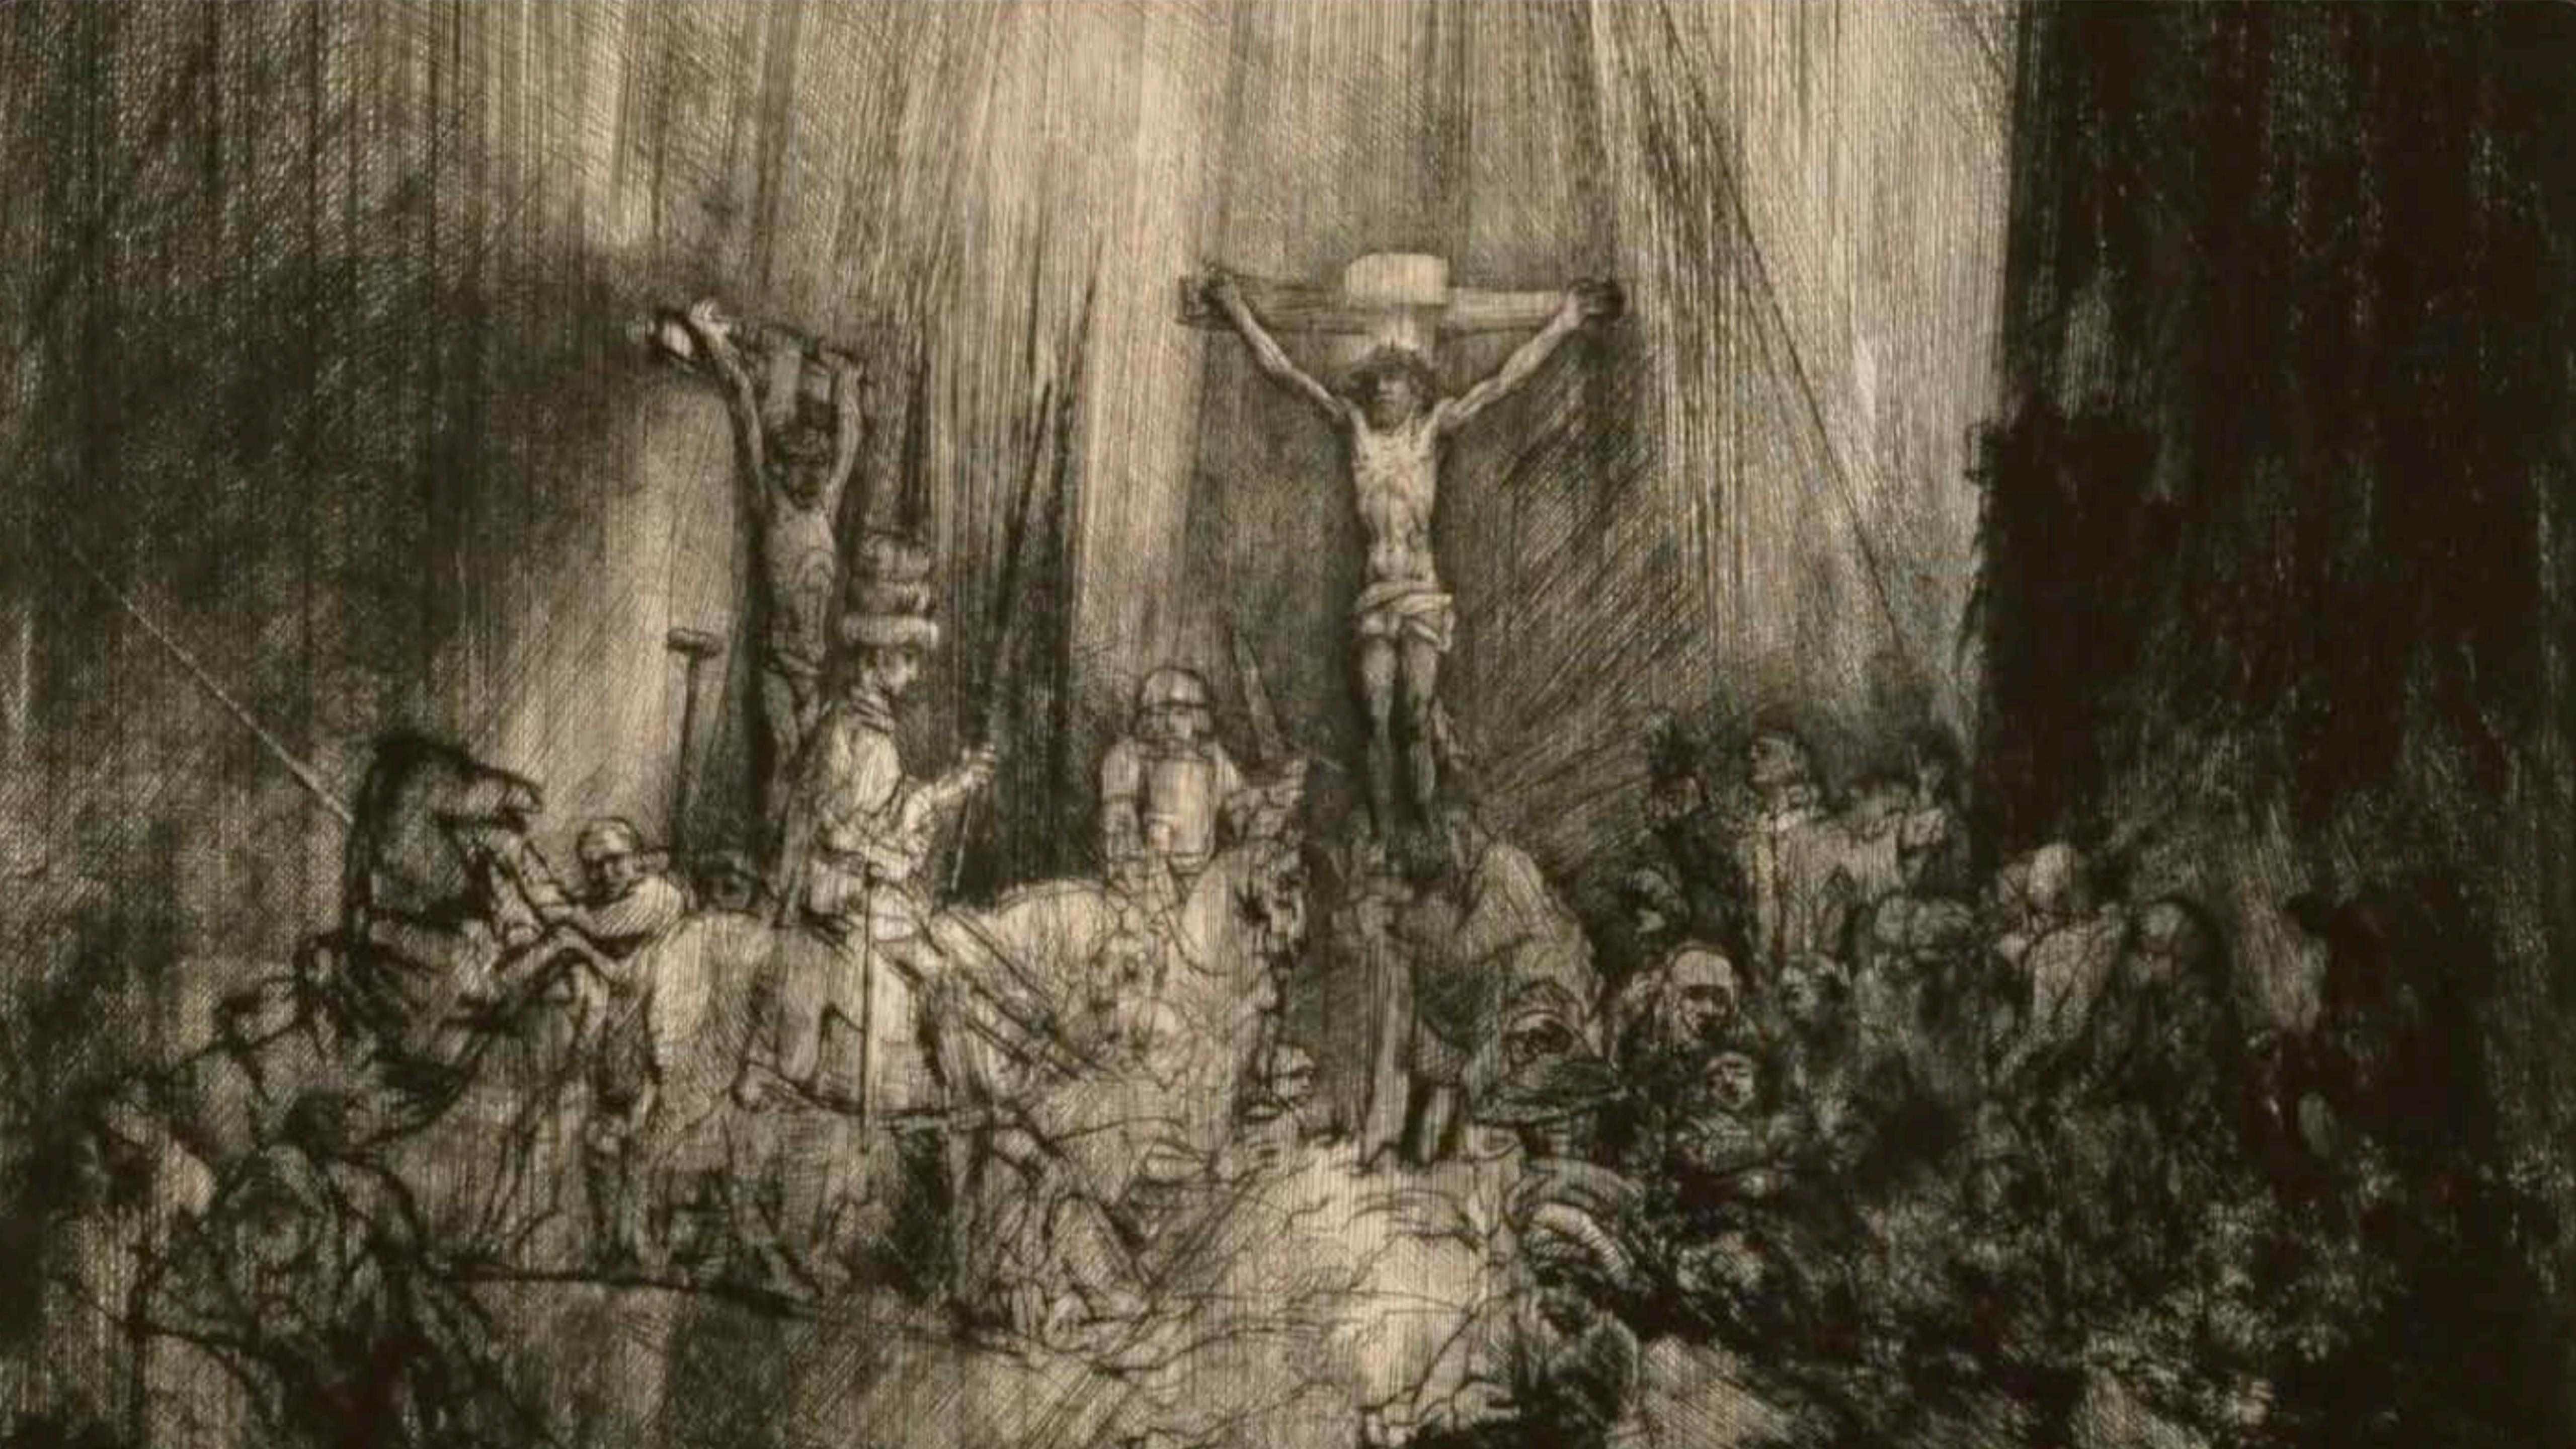

Fear & Pride

How religion tries to get people
to behave:

Fear & Pride

“For I tell you that unless your righteousness surpasses that of the Pharisees and the teachers of the law, you will certainly not enter the kingdom of heaven.”

(Matthew 5:20, NIV)

4. Is about meeting
love as a person

“Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs...”

(1 Corinthians 13:4, NIV)

We learn to love
by being loved

“Love always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails.”

(1 Corinthians 13:7b,8, NIV)

Jesus is love personified

“We must preoccupy ourselves less with trying to be like Jesus and more with simply being with Him. For when we’ve been with Him, we will become like him. The fruit of the Spirit is caught, not achieved.”

—Scott Sauls

“Who would have guessed that ‘Won’t You Be My Neighbor?’ would have audiences lining up to see it?”

—OWEN GLIEBERMAN

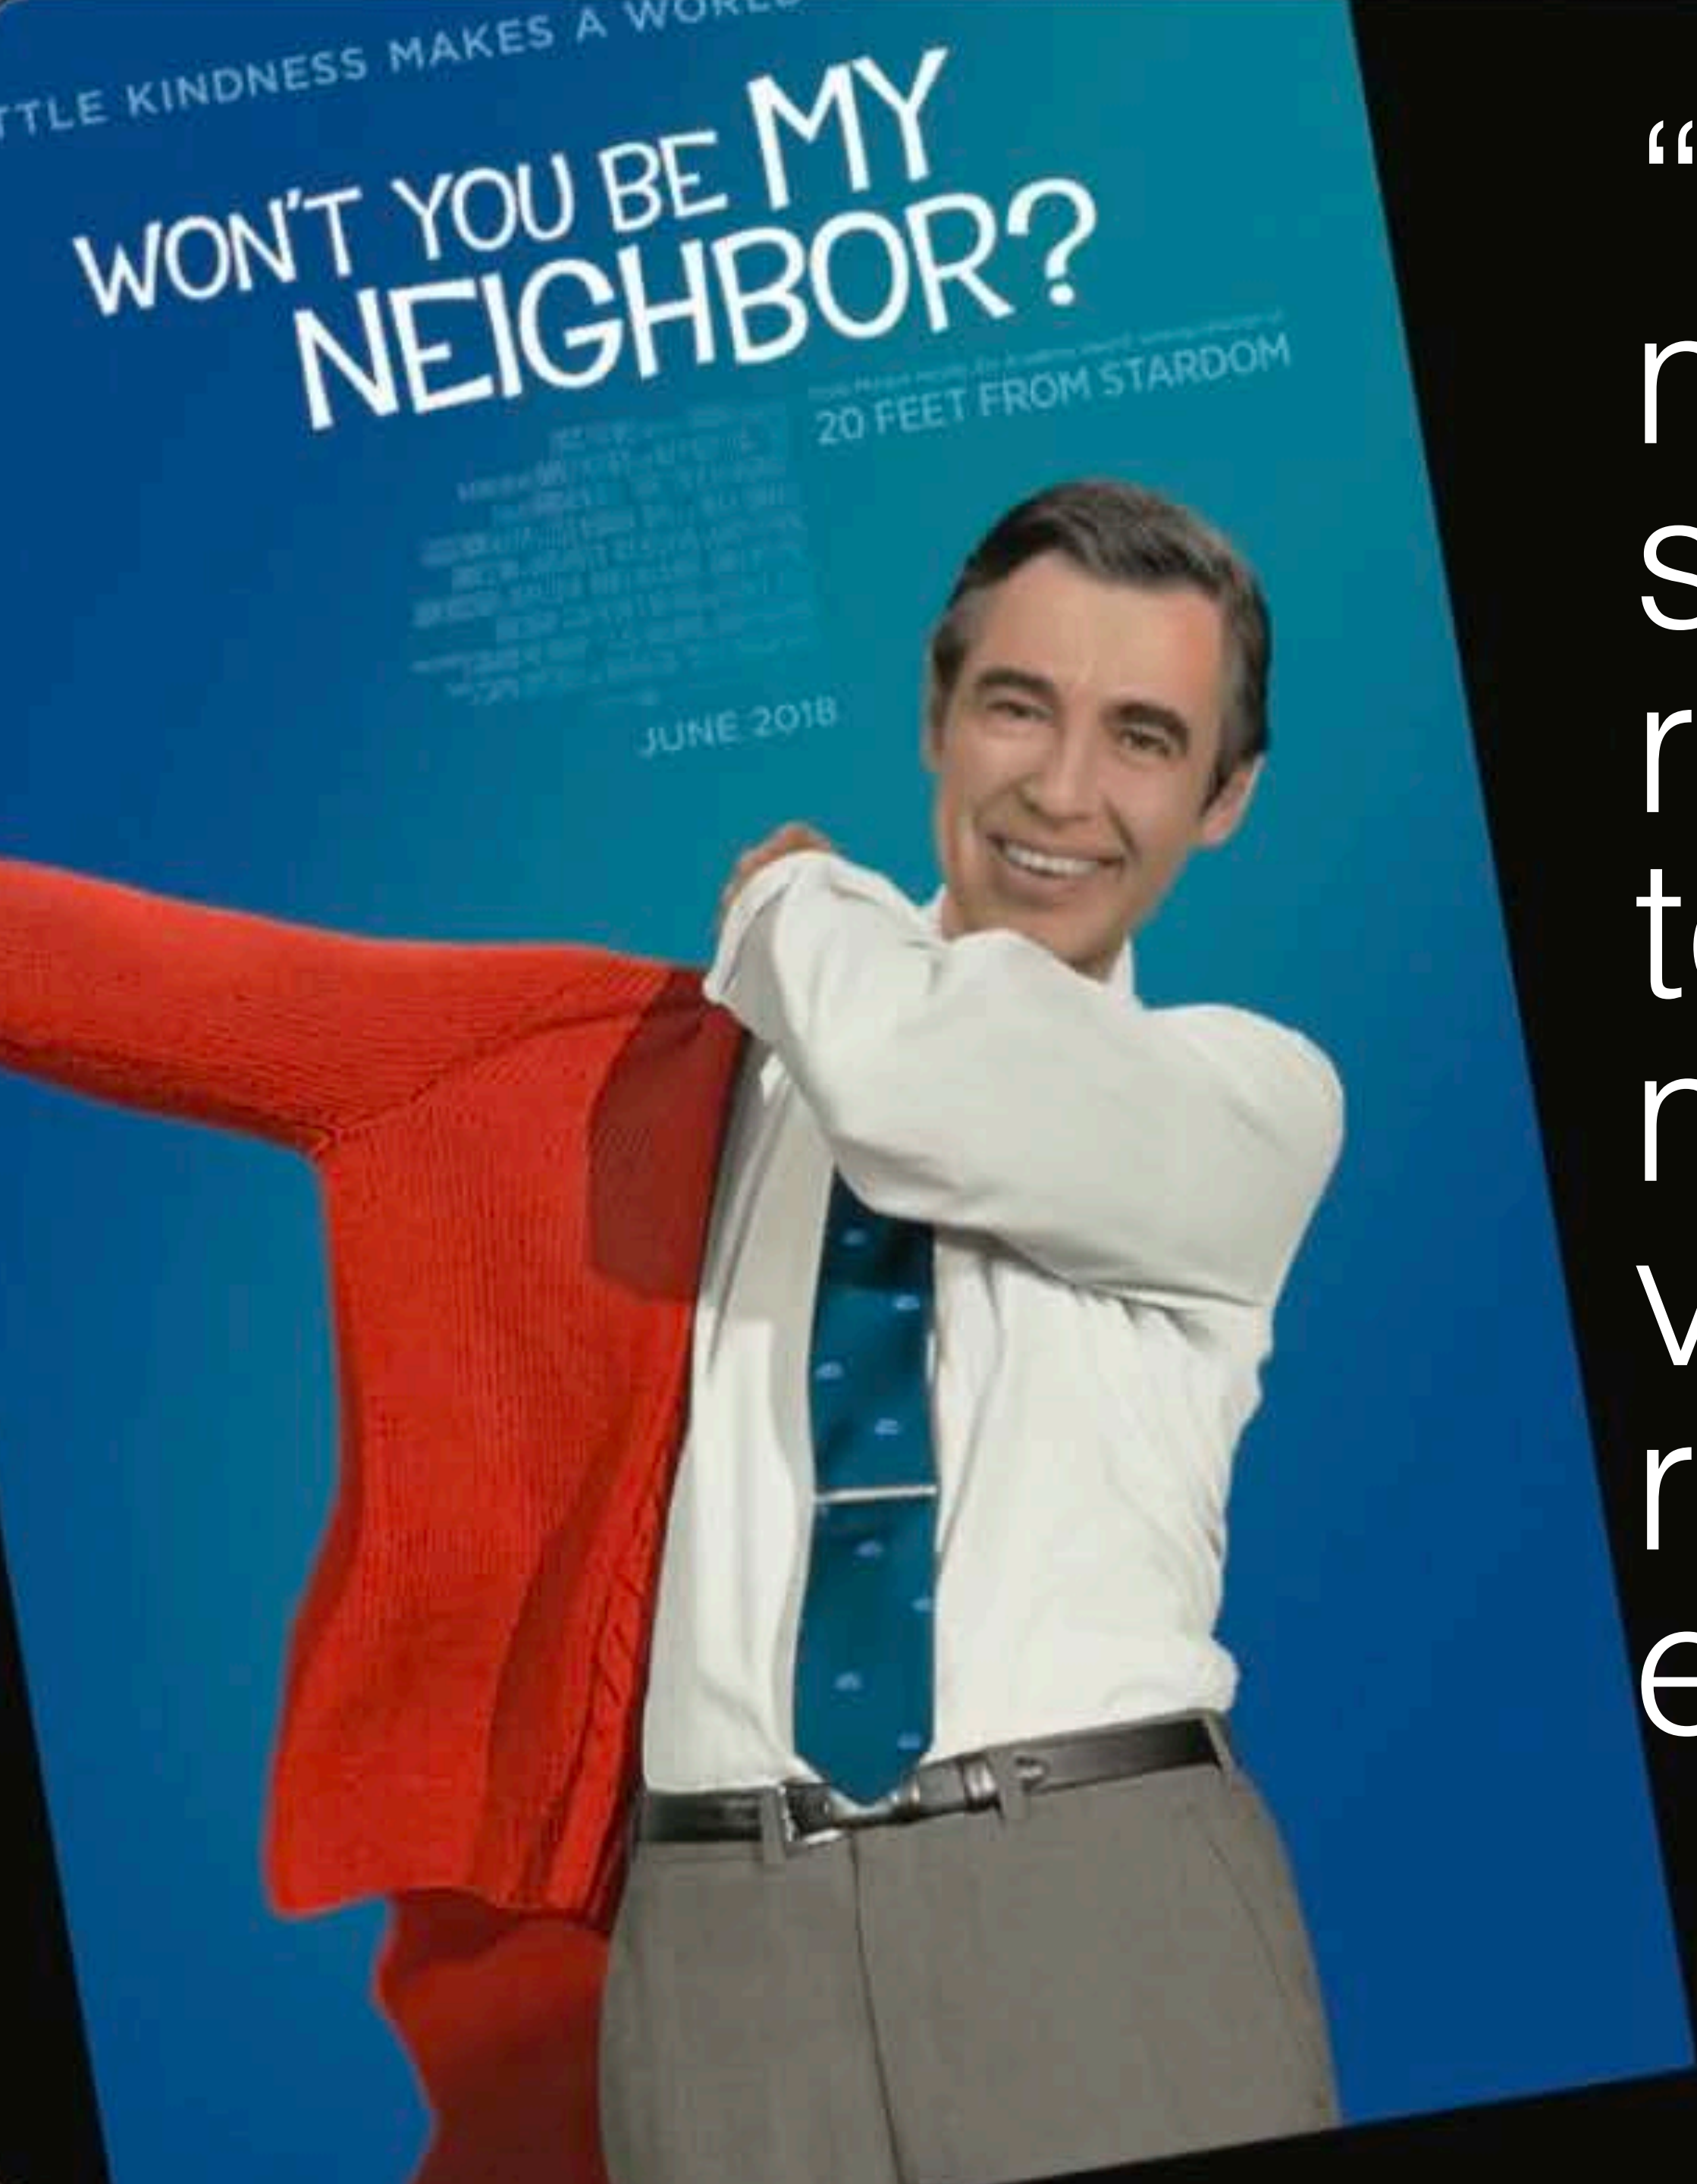

“In 2018, Mr. Rogers has become the last thing anyone might have expected him to be: a countercultural figure, a radical who can show us the way.”

—OWEN GLIEBERMAN

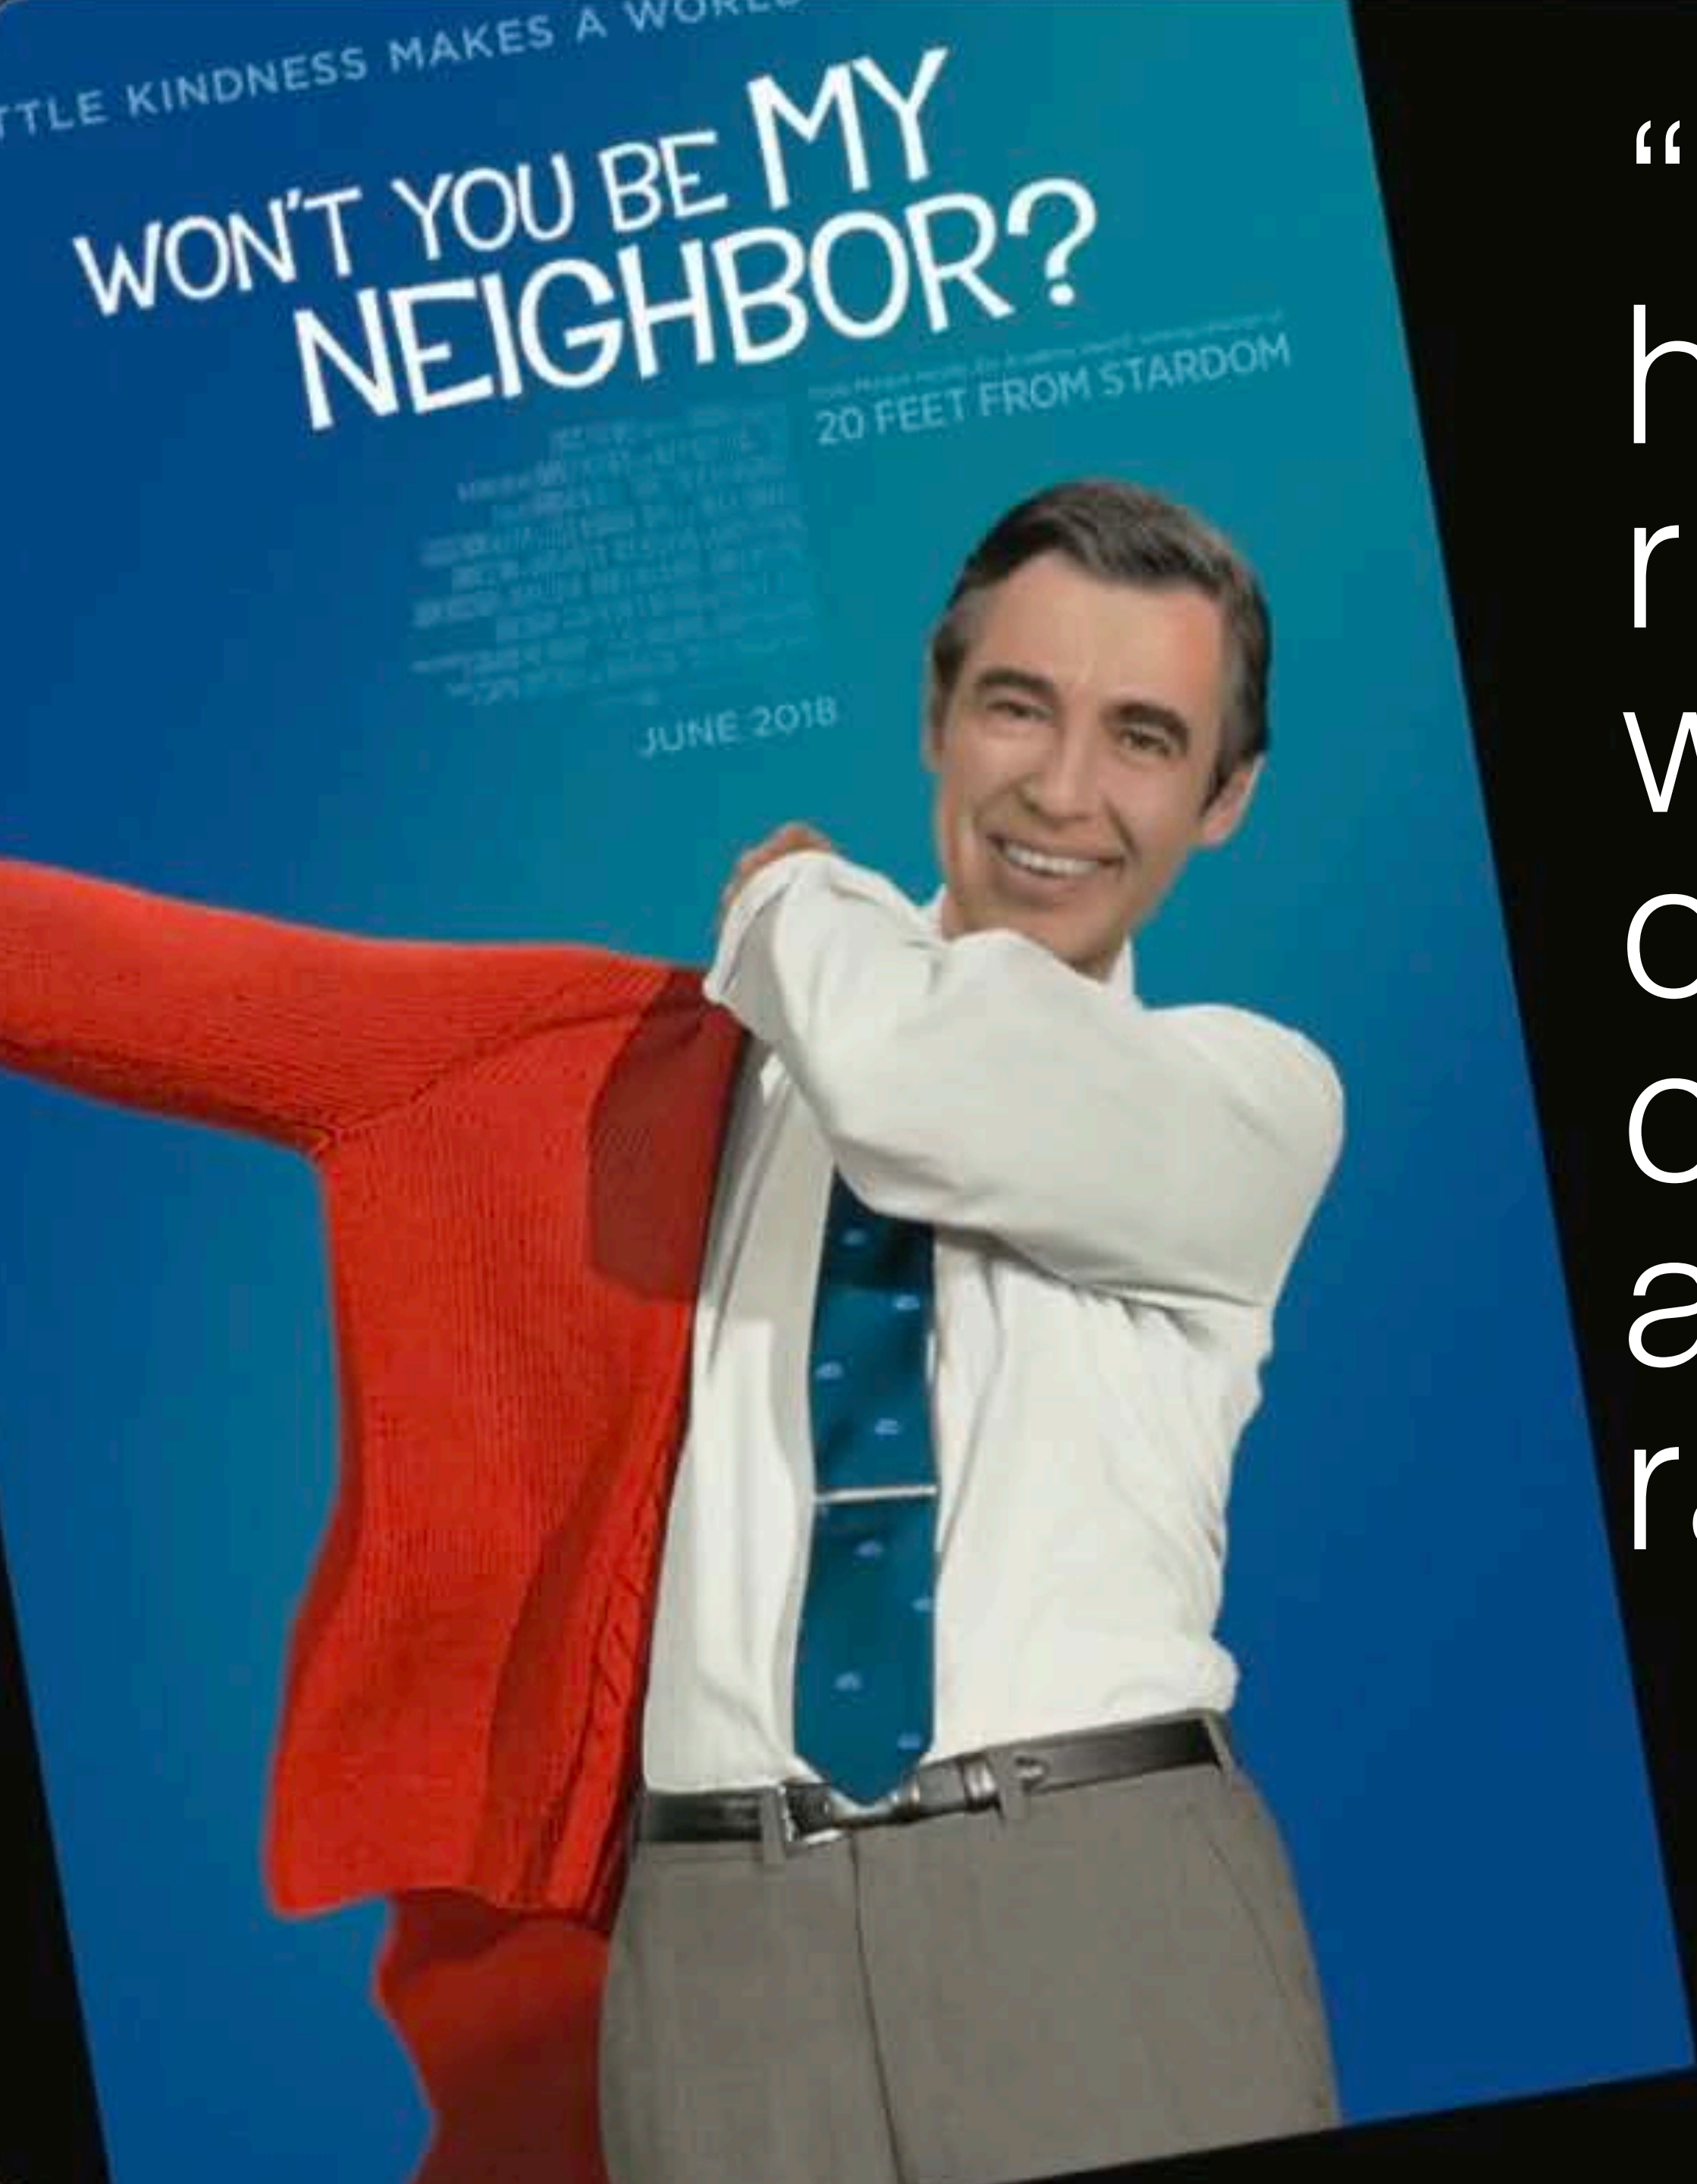

“You probably think I’m kidding (or deluded), but after you see ‘Won’t You Be My Neighbor?’ you’ll realize I’m not.”

—OWEN GLIEBERMAN

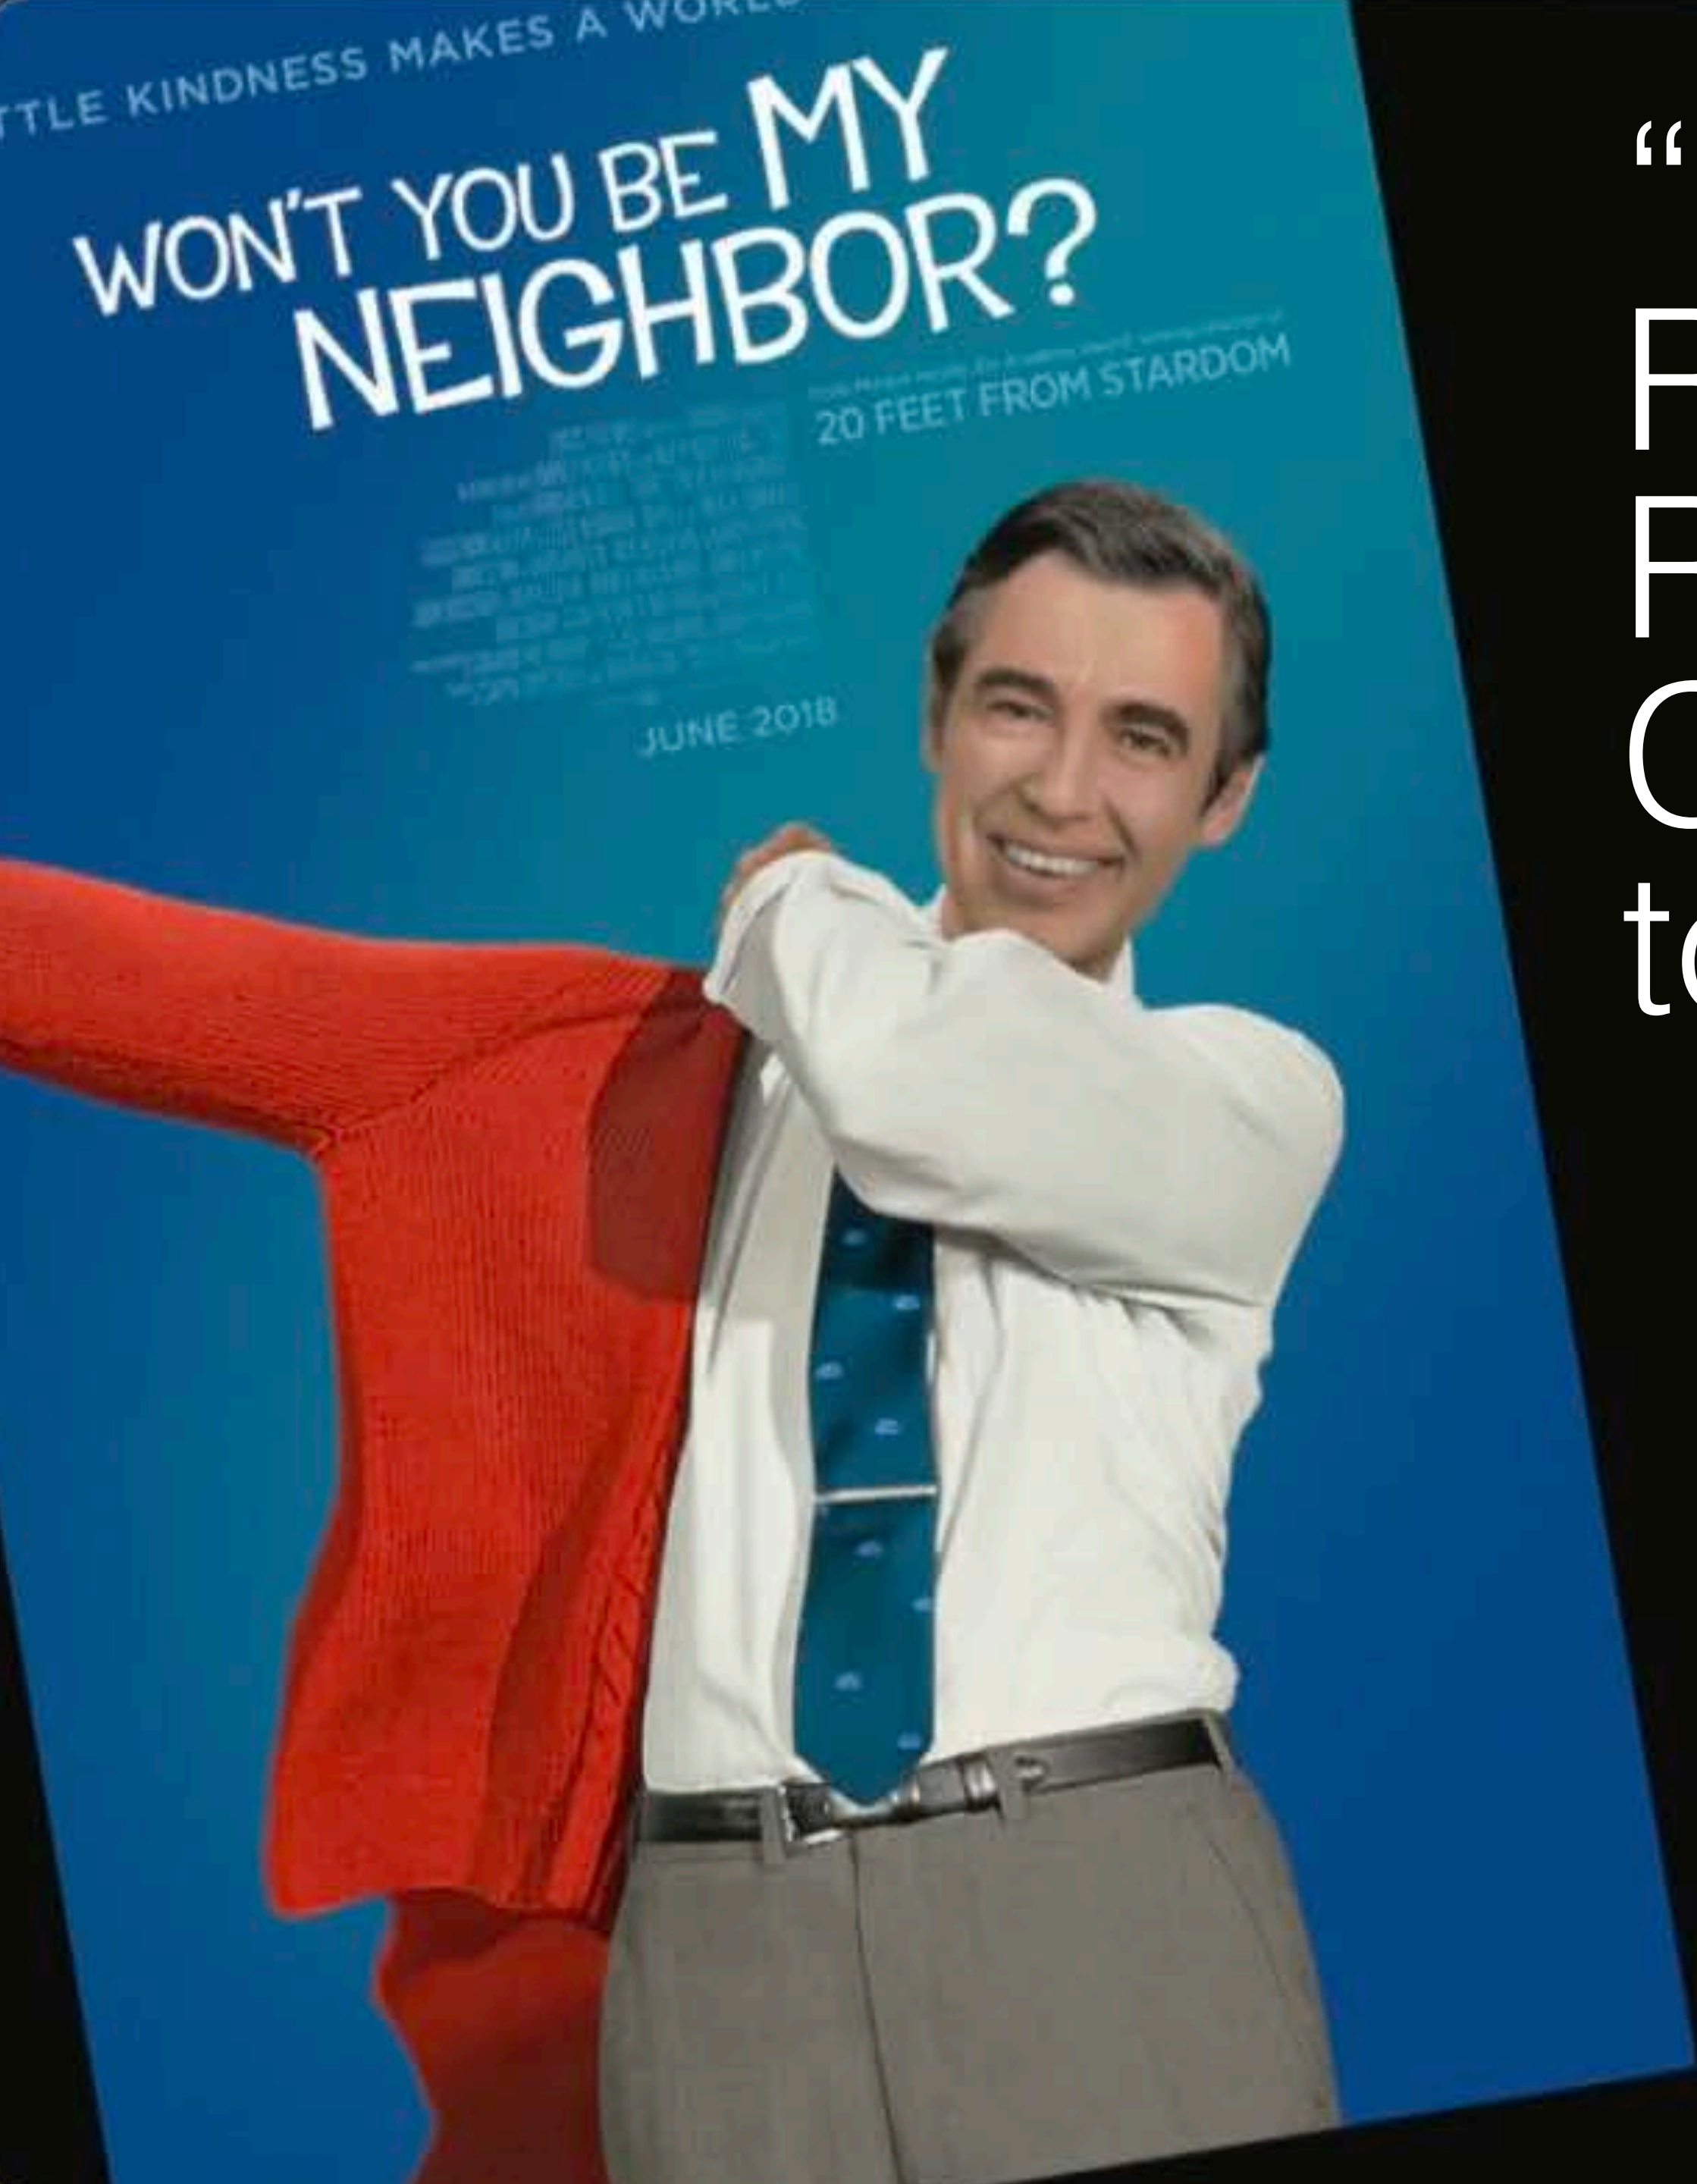

“Counterculture doesn’t mean hippies and peace signs, sex, drugs, and rock ‘n’ roll. According to my Webster’s, it means ‘a culture with values and mores that run counter to those of established society.’”

—OWEN GLIEBERMAN

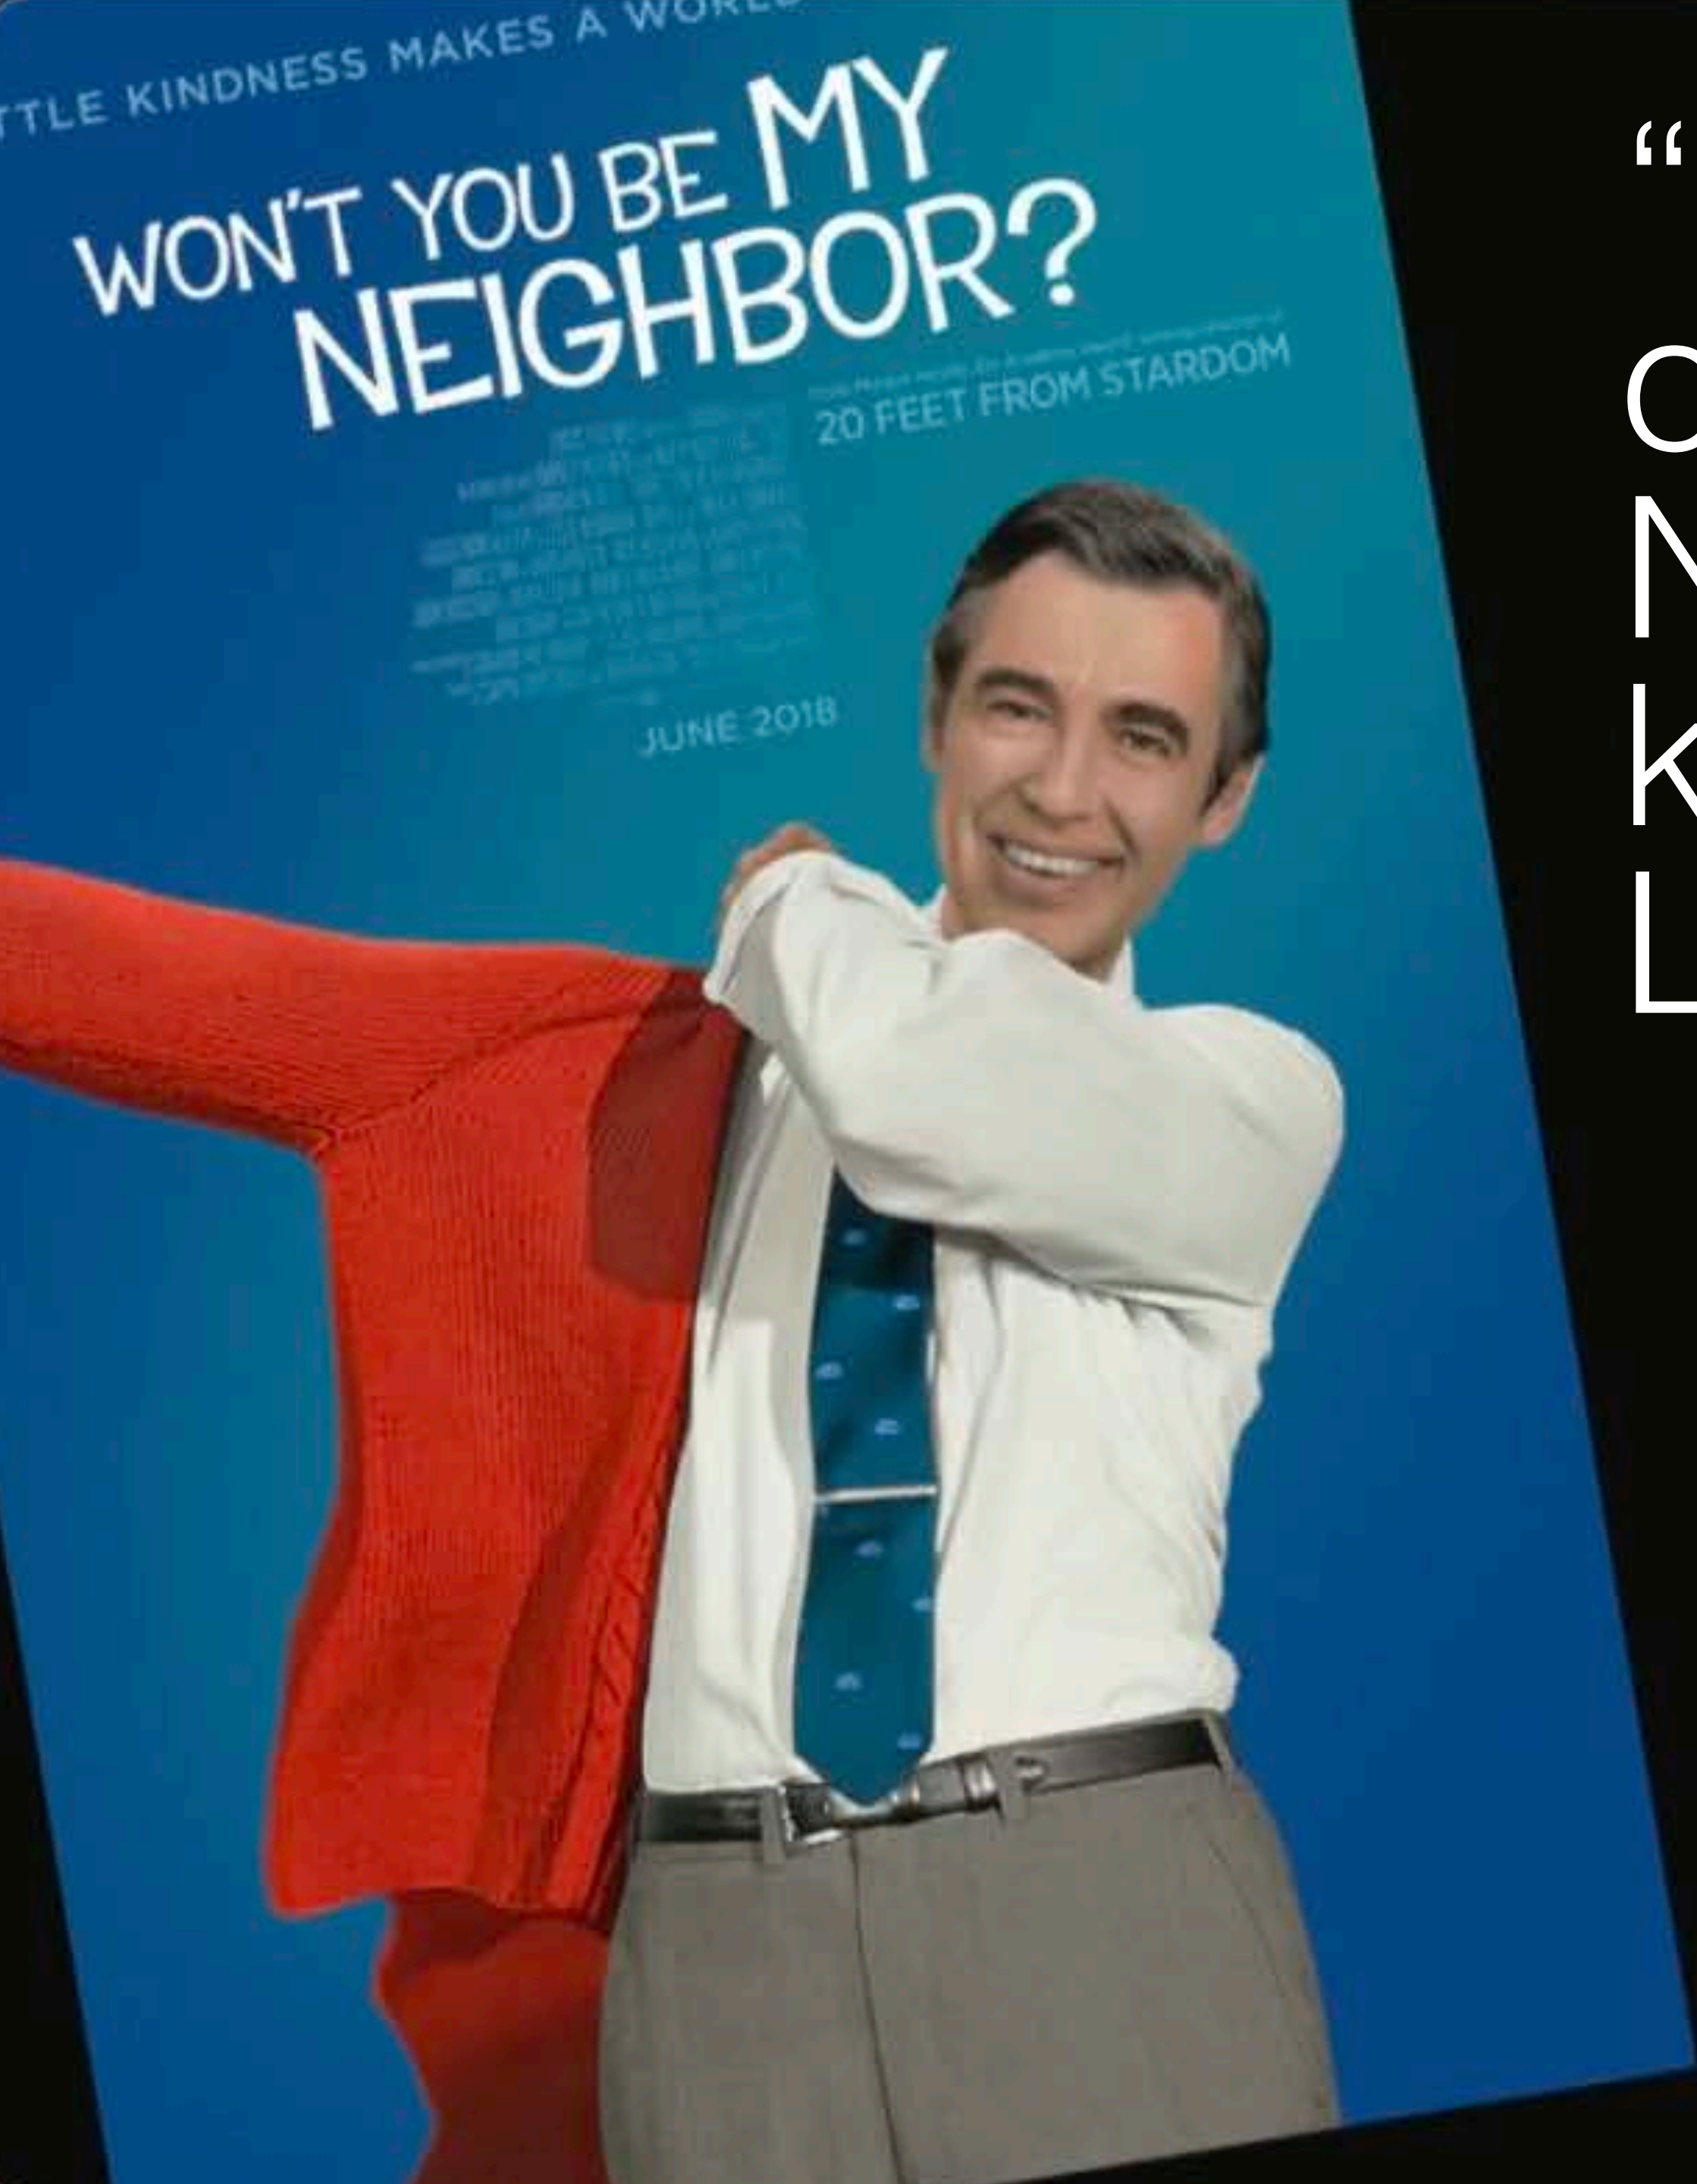

“Right now our society is hooked on self-righteousness. ‘Fight fire with fire...’ Yet this cycle of rage has produced a cultural civil war... an agonizingly divided and rageaholic society.”

—OWEN GLIEBERMAN

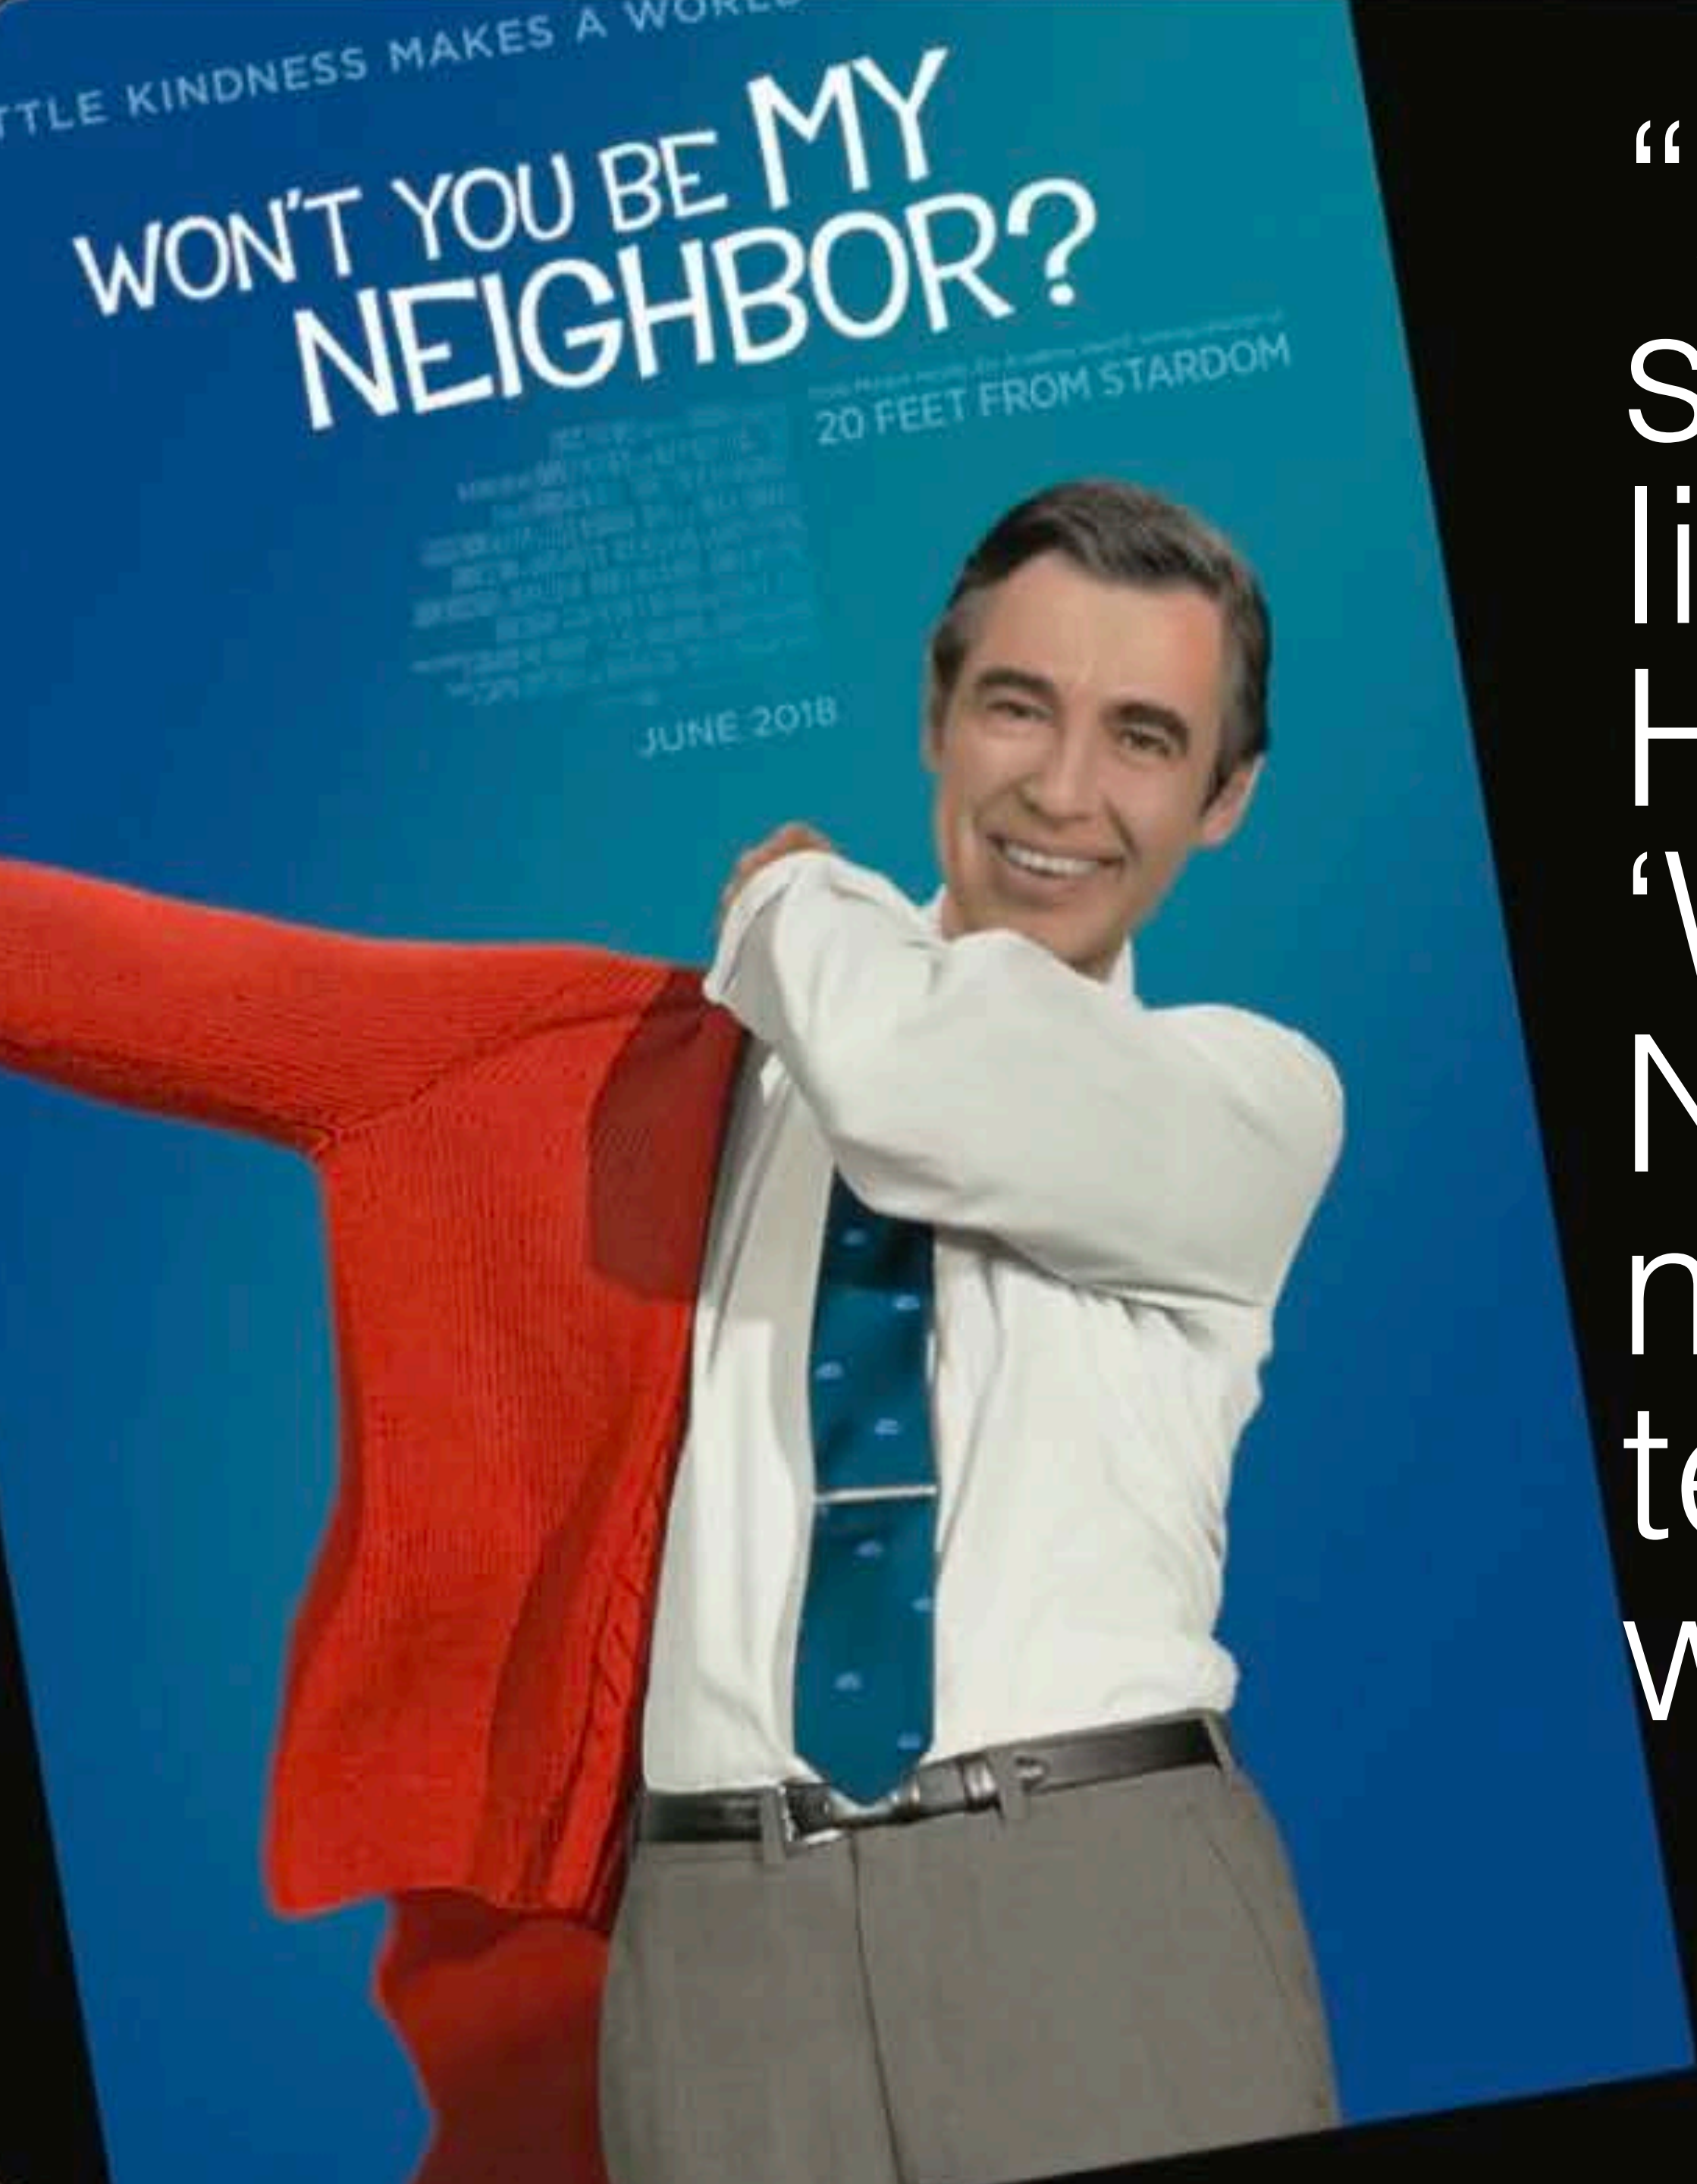

“That’s where Fred Rogers comes in. Fred Rogers was a devout Christian... who trained to be a minister...

—OWEN GLIEBERMAN

“...and what he applied on ‘Mister Rogers’ Neighborhood’ was the key teaching of Christ: Love thy neighbor.”

—OWEN GLIEBERMAN

“And while it’s easy to say ‘Great! That sounds like it was made for a Hallmark card,’ to see ‘Won’t You Be My Neighbor?’ is to be moved, in the end, to tears by the audacity of what Rogers incarnated.”

—OWEN GLIEBERMAN
