DAVID

A MAN AFTER GOD'S HEART

2 Samuel 11, 12

Then Nathan said to David,

“You are that man!”

(2 Samuel 12:7, NLT)

You are that man!

This story shows
three truths:

1. The power of sin

“As that old proverb says, ‘From evil people come evil deeds.’ So you can be sure I will never harm you.”

(2 Samuel 24:13, NLT)

BAD GUYS

GUYS

GOOD

“I delight to do your will, O Lord, your law is written on my heart.”

(Psalm 40:8, NLT)

This story teaches us that the seeds of the most terrible atrocity live in every human heart, in the best people, even people who are converted by God.”

— Tim Keller

A painting depicting a man in a white shirt and dark pants leaning over a balcony on the left, looking out at a sunset over a city. The sky is filled with soft, colorful clouds in shades of blue, yellow, and orange. In the foreground, there is a stone tower with a conical roof and some greenery. On the right side, a hand is visible, holding a small object. The overall mood is contemplative and nostalgic.

STUFF I WANT THAT I CAN'T HAVE

2. The pain of consequences

Nathan answered, “The Lord has taken away your sin. You will not die. But....”

(2 Samuel 12:13, 14, NLT)

3. The possibility of redemption

“Leaving them in a heap on the side of the road is not the answer; allowing them to act like nothing happened is not the answer. There should be an expectation of real rehabilitation – that they have seen the light and want to make dramatic shifts in their behavior.”

Psalm 51

Have mercy on me, O God,
because of your unfailing love.
Because of your great
compassion
blot out the stain of my sins.

(Psalm 51:1, NLT)

Have mercy on me, O God,
because of your unfailing love.

Because of your great
compassion

blot out the stain of my sins.

(Psalm 51:1, NLT)

Have mercy on me, O God,
because of your unfailing love.

Because of your great
compassion

blot out the stain of my sins.

(Psalm 51:1, NLT)

The sacrifice you desire is a broken spirit.

You will not reject a broken and repentant heart,
O God.

(Psalm 51:17, NLT)

Create in me a clean heart, O God,
Renew in me a steadfast spirit.
(Psalm 51:10, NLT)

No one is ever beyond redemption.

“Jesus, remember me
when you come into your Kingdom.”

“I assure you, today you will be with me in paradise.”

You are that man.

Leader: Have mercy on us, O God, according to Your unfailing love; according to Your great compassion blot out our transgressions.

People: Wash away all our iniquities and cleanse us from our sin.

Leader: Create in us a pure heart,
O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within us.

People: Restore to us the joy of your salvation and grant us a willing spirit, to sustain us.

Leader: We will praise you, Lord, among the nations; we will sing of you among the people.

People: For great is your love, reaching to the heavens; your faithfulness reaches to the skies.

Leader: We cry aloud to the Lord;
we lift up our voices to the Lord for mercy.

People: When our spirit grows faint within us, it is you who watches over our way.

All: Our sacrifice, O God, is a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart you, God, will not despise.
