Esther 4:10-14

Then Esther spoke to Hathach, and gave him a command for Mordecai:

A pocket watch is shown in the lower-left foreground, resting on a sandy beach. The watch is silver-colored with a white face and black numerals. The background is a soft-focus sunset over the ocean, with warm golden light reflecting on the water and sand. The sky is a mix of orange, yellow, and light blue.

“All the king’s servants and the people of the king’s provinces know that any man or woman who goes into the inner court to the king, who has not been called, he has but one law:

Put all to death,
except the one to whom the king holds out the golden scepter,
that he may live.

Yet I myself have not been called to go in to the king these thirty days.”
So they told Mordecai Esther’s words.

And Mordecai told them to answer Esther:
“Do not think in your heart that you will escape in the King’s palace any more than all the other Jews.

For if you remain completely silent at this time, relief and deliverance will arise for the Jews from another place, but you and your father's house will perish.

A pocket watch is shown in the lower-left foreground, partially buried in sand. The watch has a white face with black numbers and hands, and a metal ring at the top. The background is a vast, flat beach under a bright, hazy sky at sunset or sunrise, with the sun low on the horizon creating a warm, golden glow. The overall scene is serene and contemplative.

Yet who knows whether you have come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"

and plead with him on behalf of her people.”
