Now while Paul was waiting for them at Athens, his spirit was provoked within him as he saw that the city was full of idols.

Some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers also conversed with him.

And they took him and brought him to the Areopagus, saying, “May we know what this new teaching is that you are presenting?

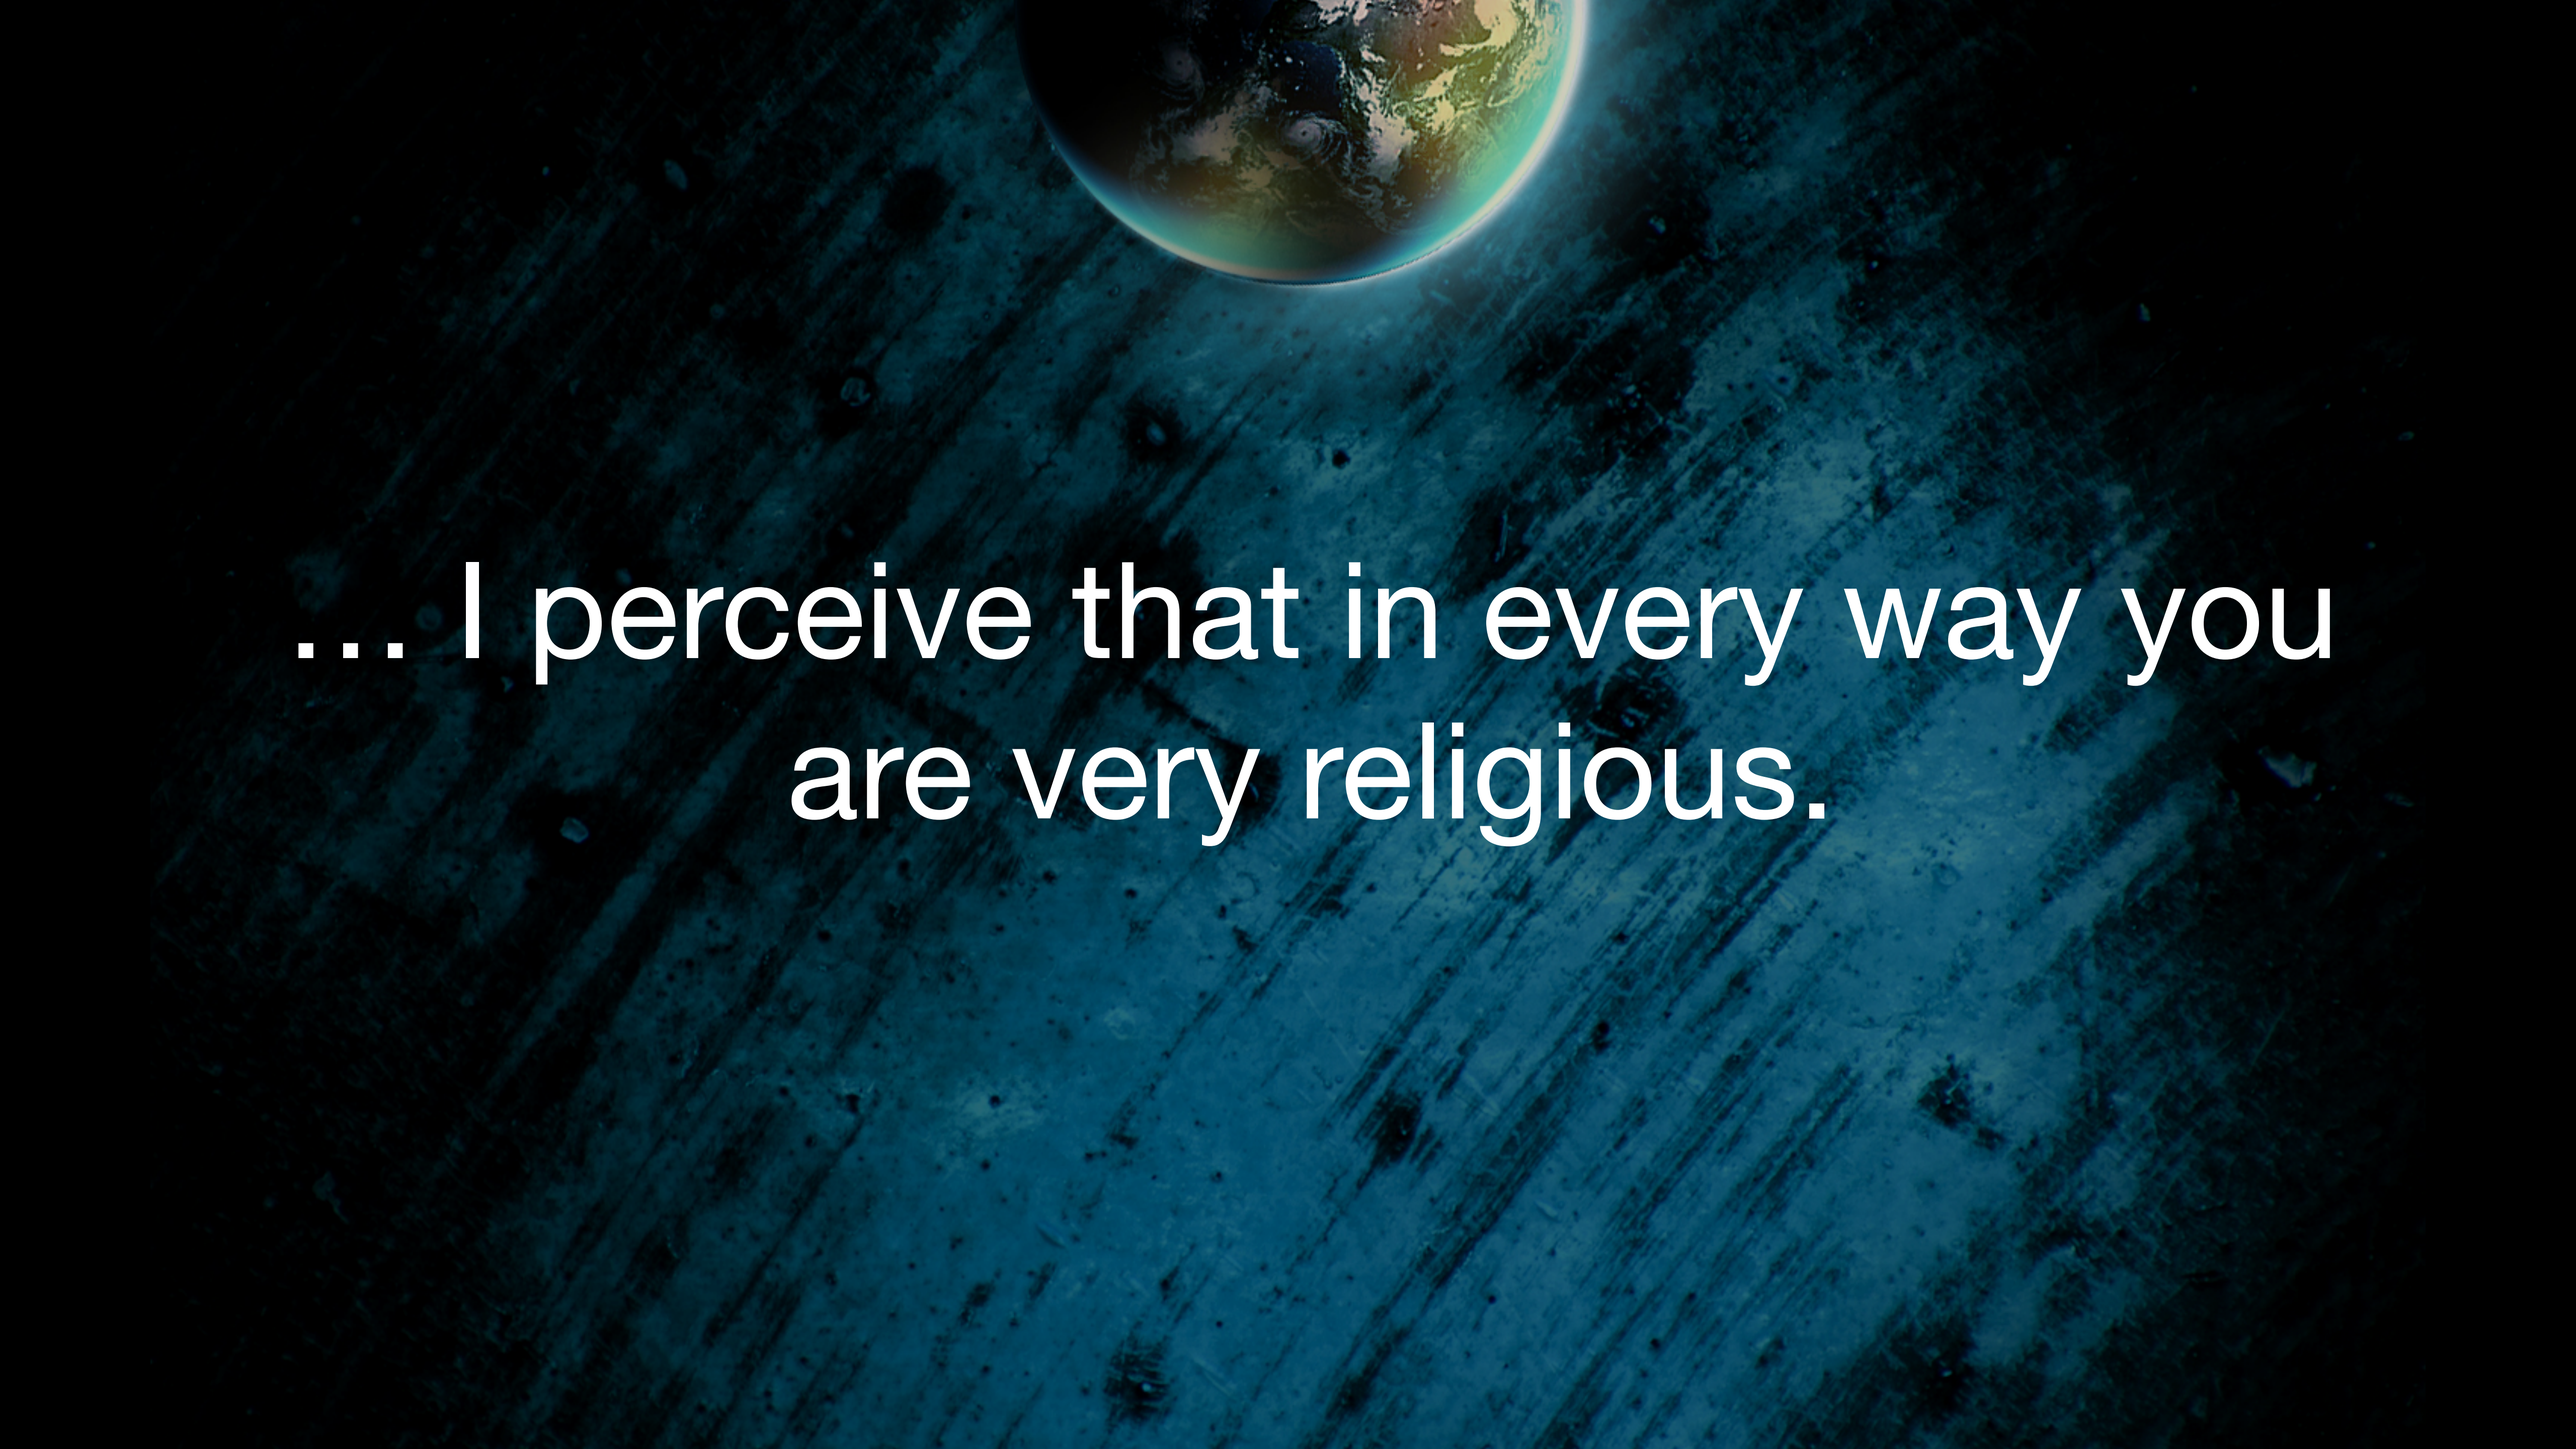

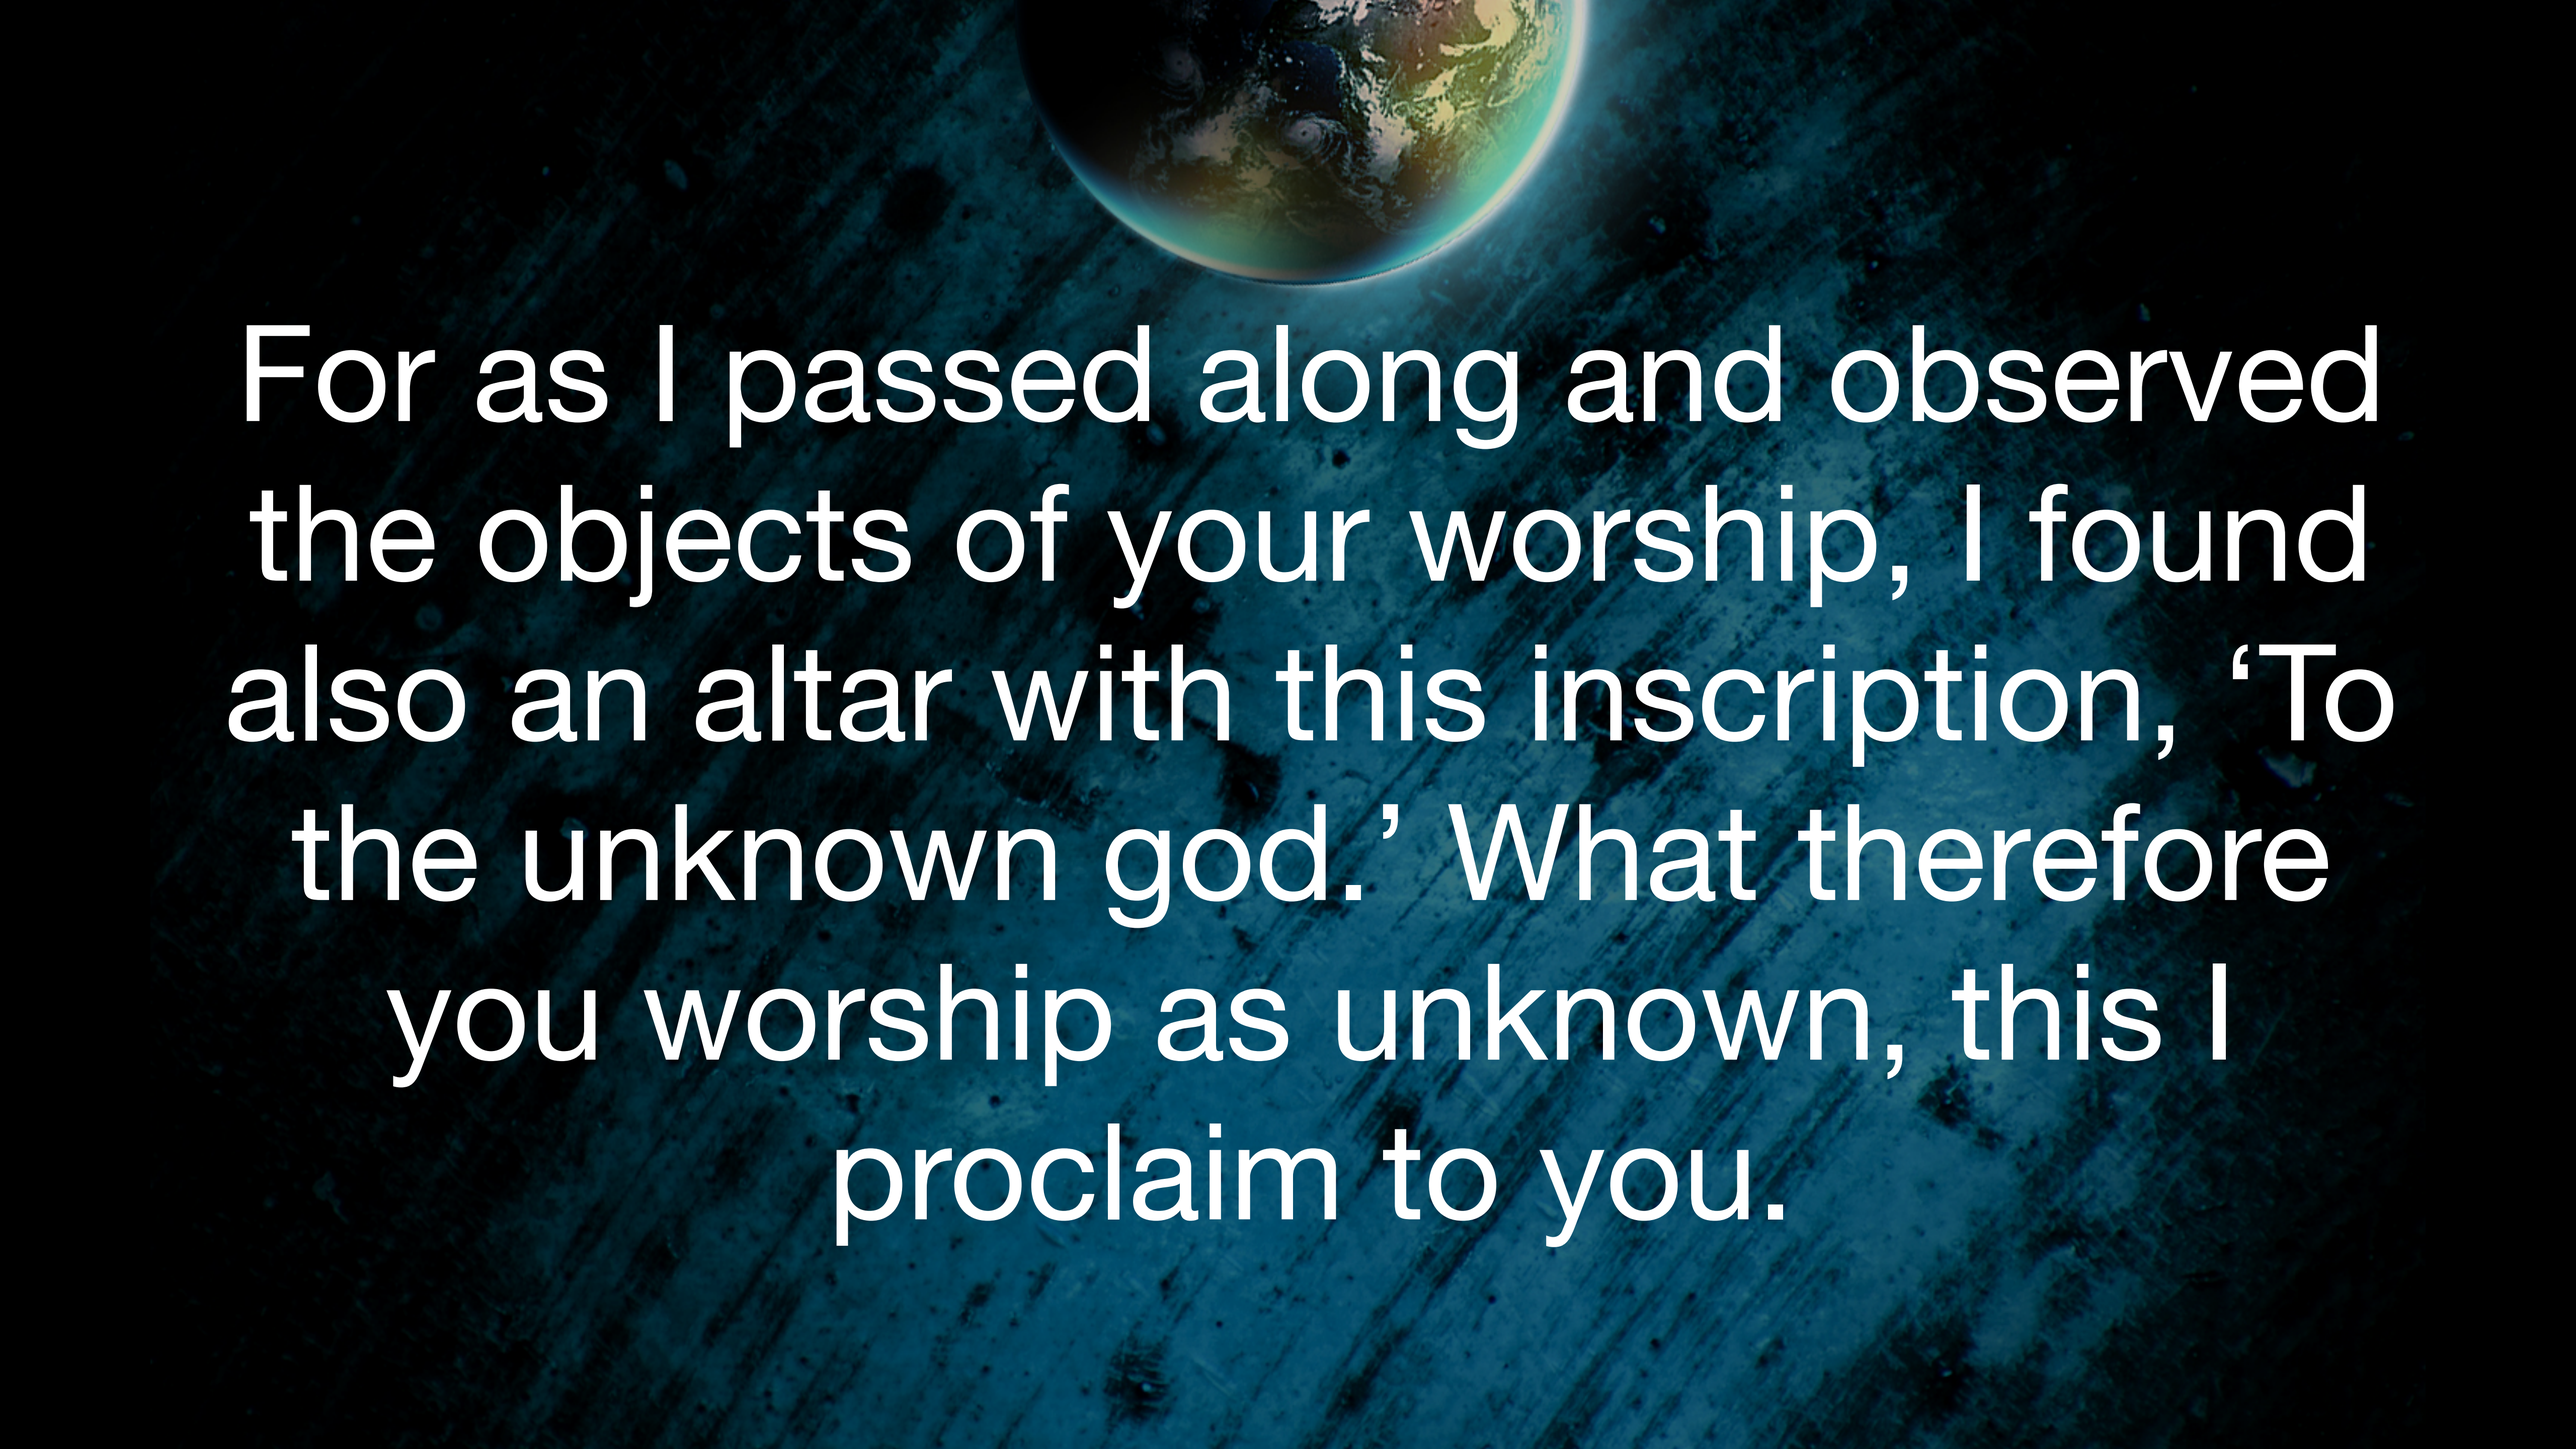

So Paul, standing in the midst of the Areopagus, said:

“Men of Athens…

… I perceive that in every way you are very religious.

For as I passed along and observed the objects of your worship, I found also an altar with this inscription, ‘To the unknown god.’ What therefore you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you.

4. The Grace of God

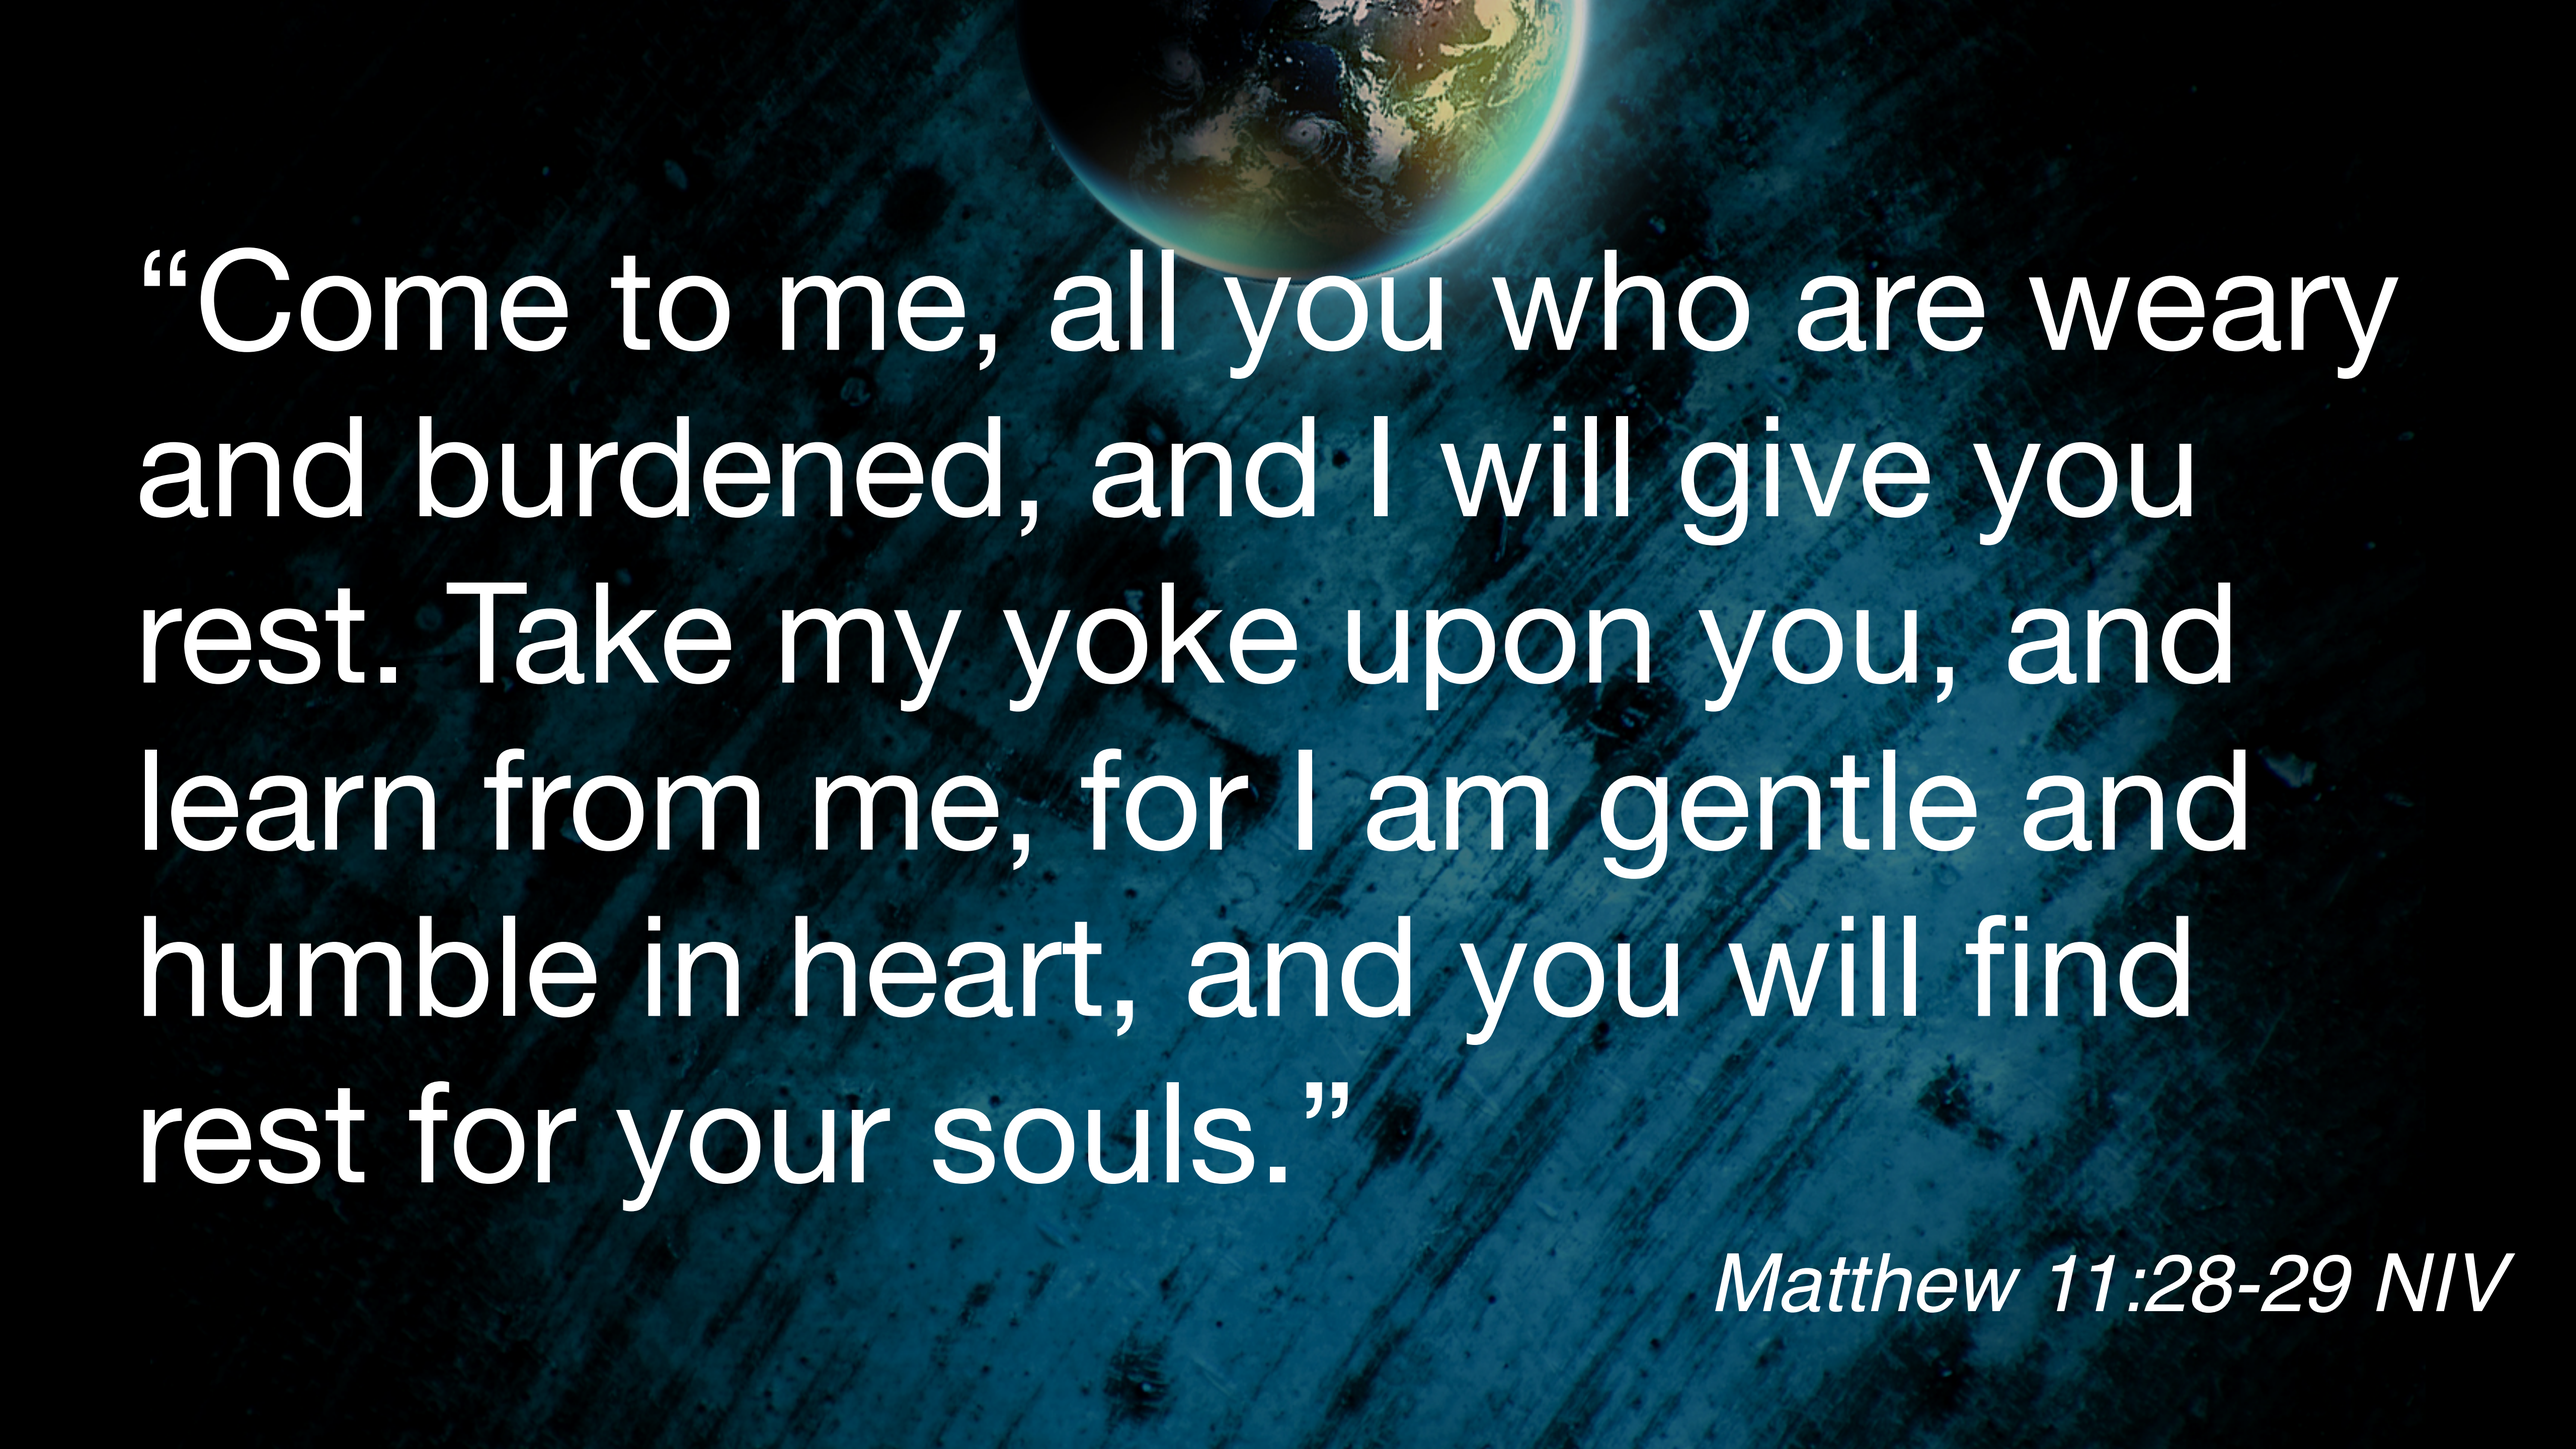

The Grace of God

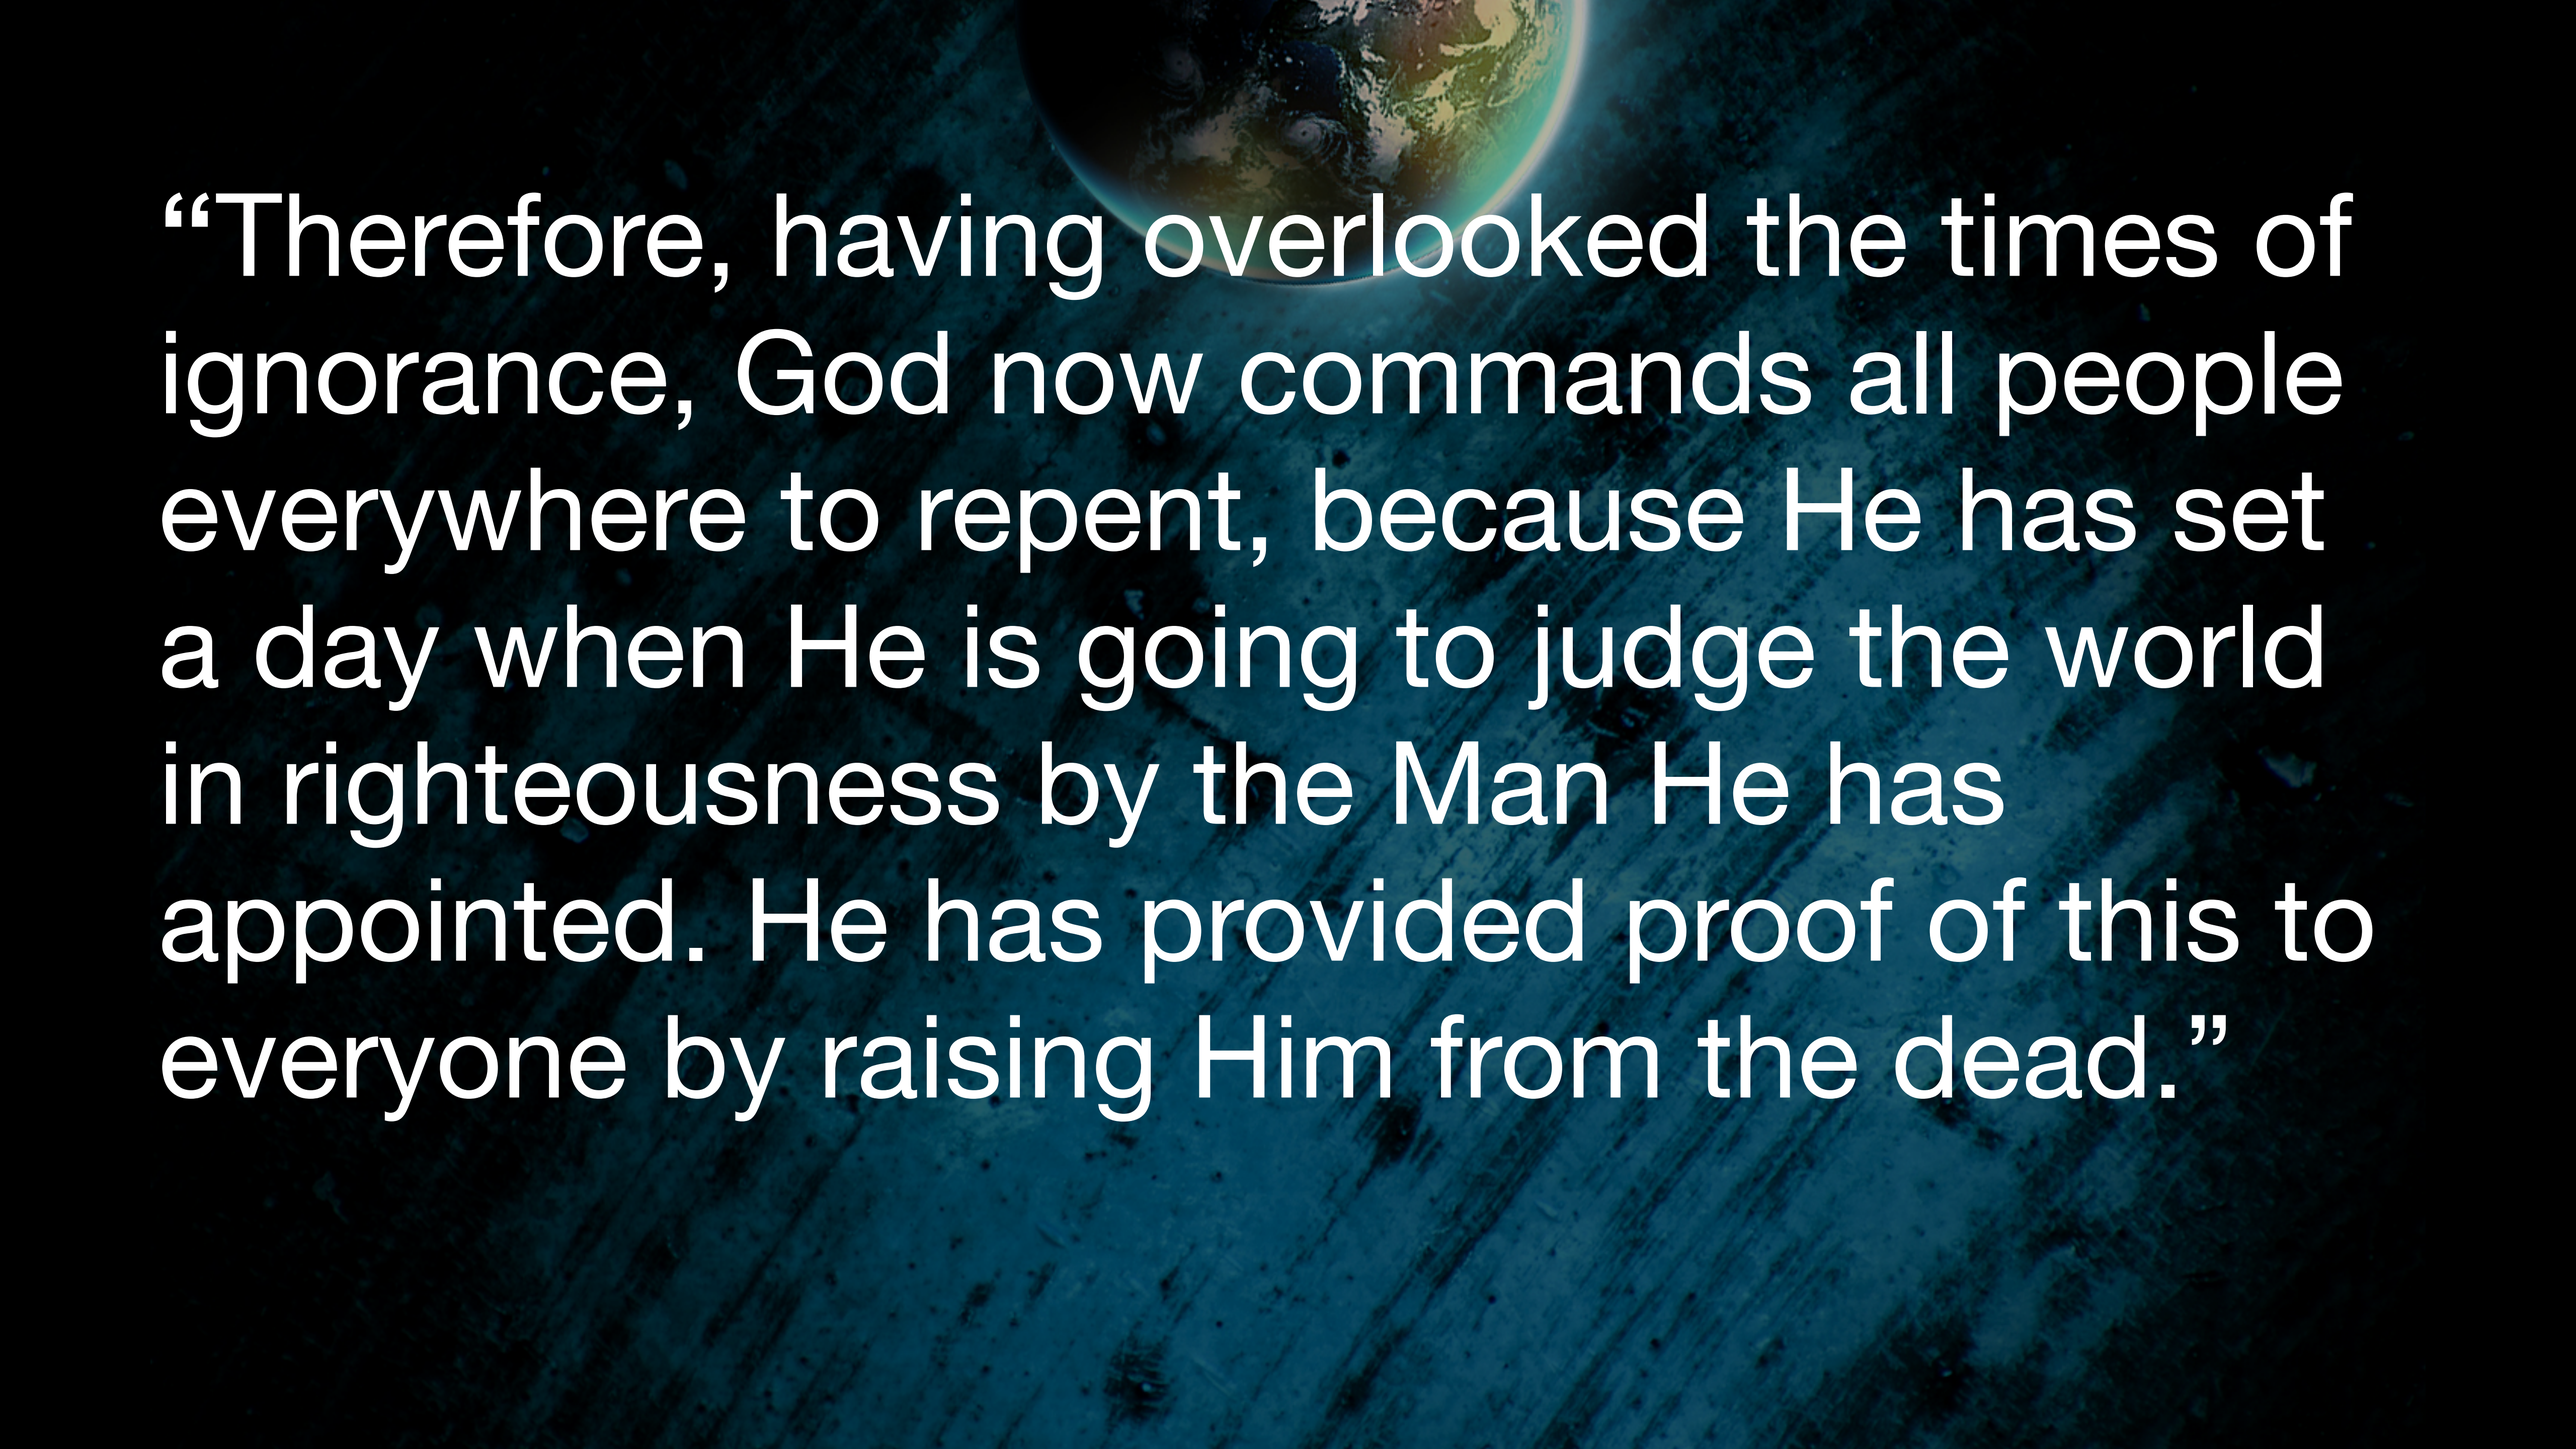

"…that they should seek God, and perhaps feel their way toward him and find him. Yet he is actually not far from each one of us."

The Grace of God

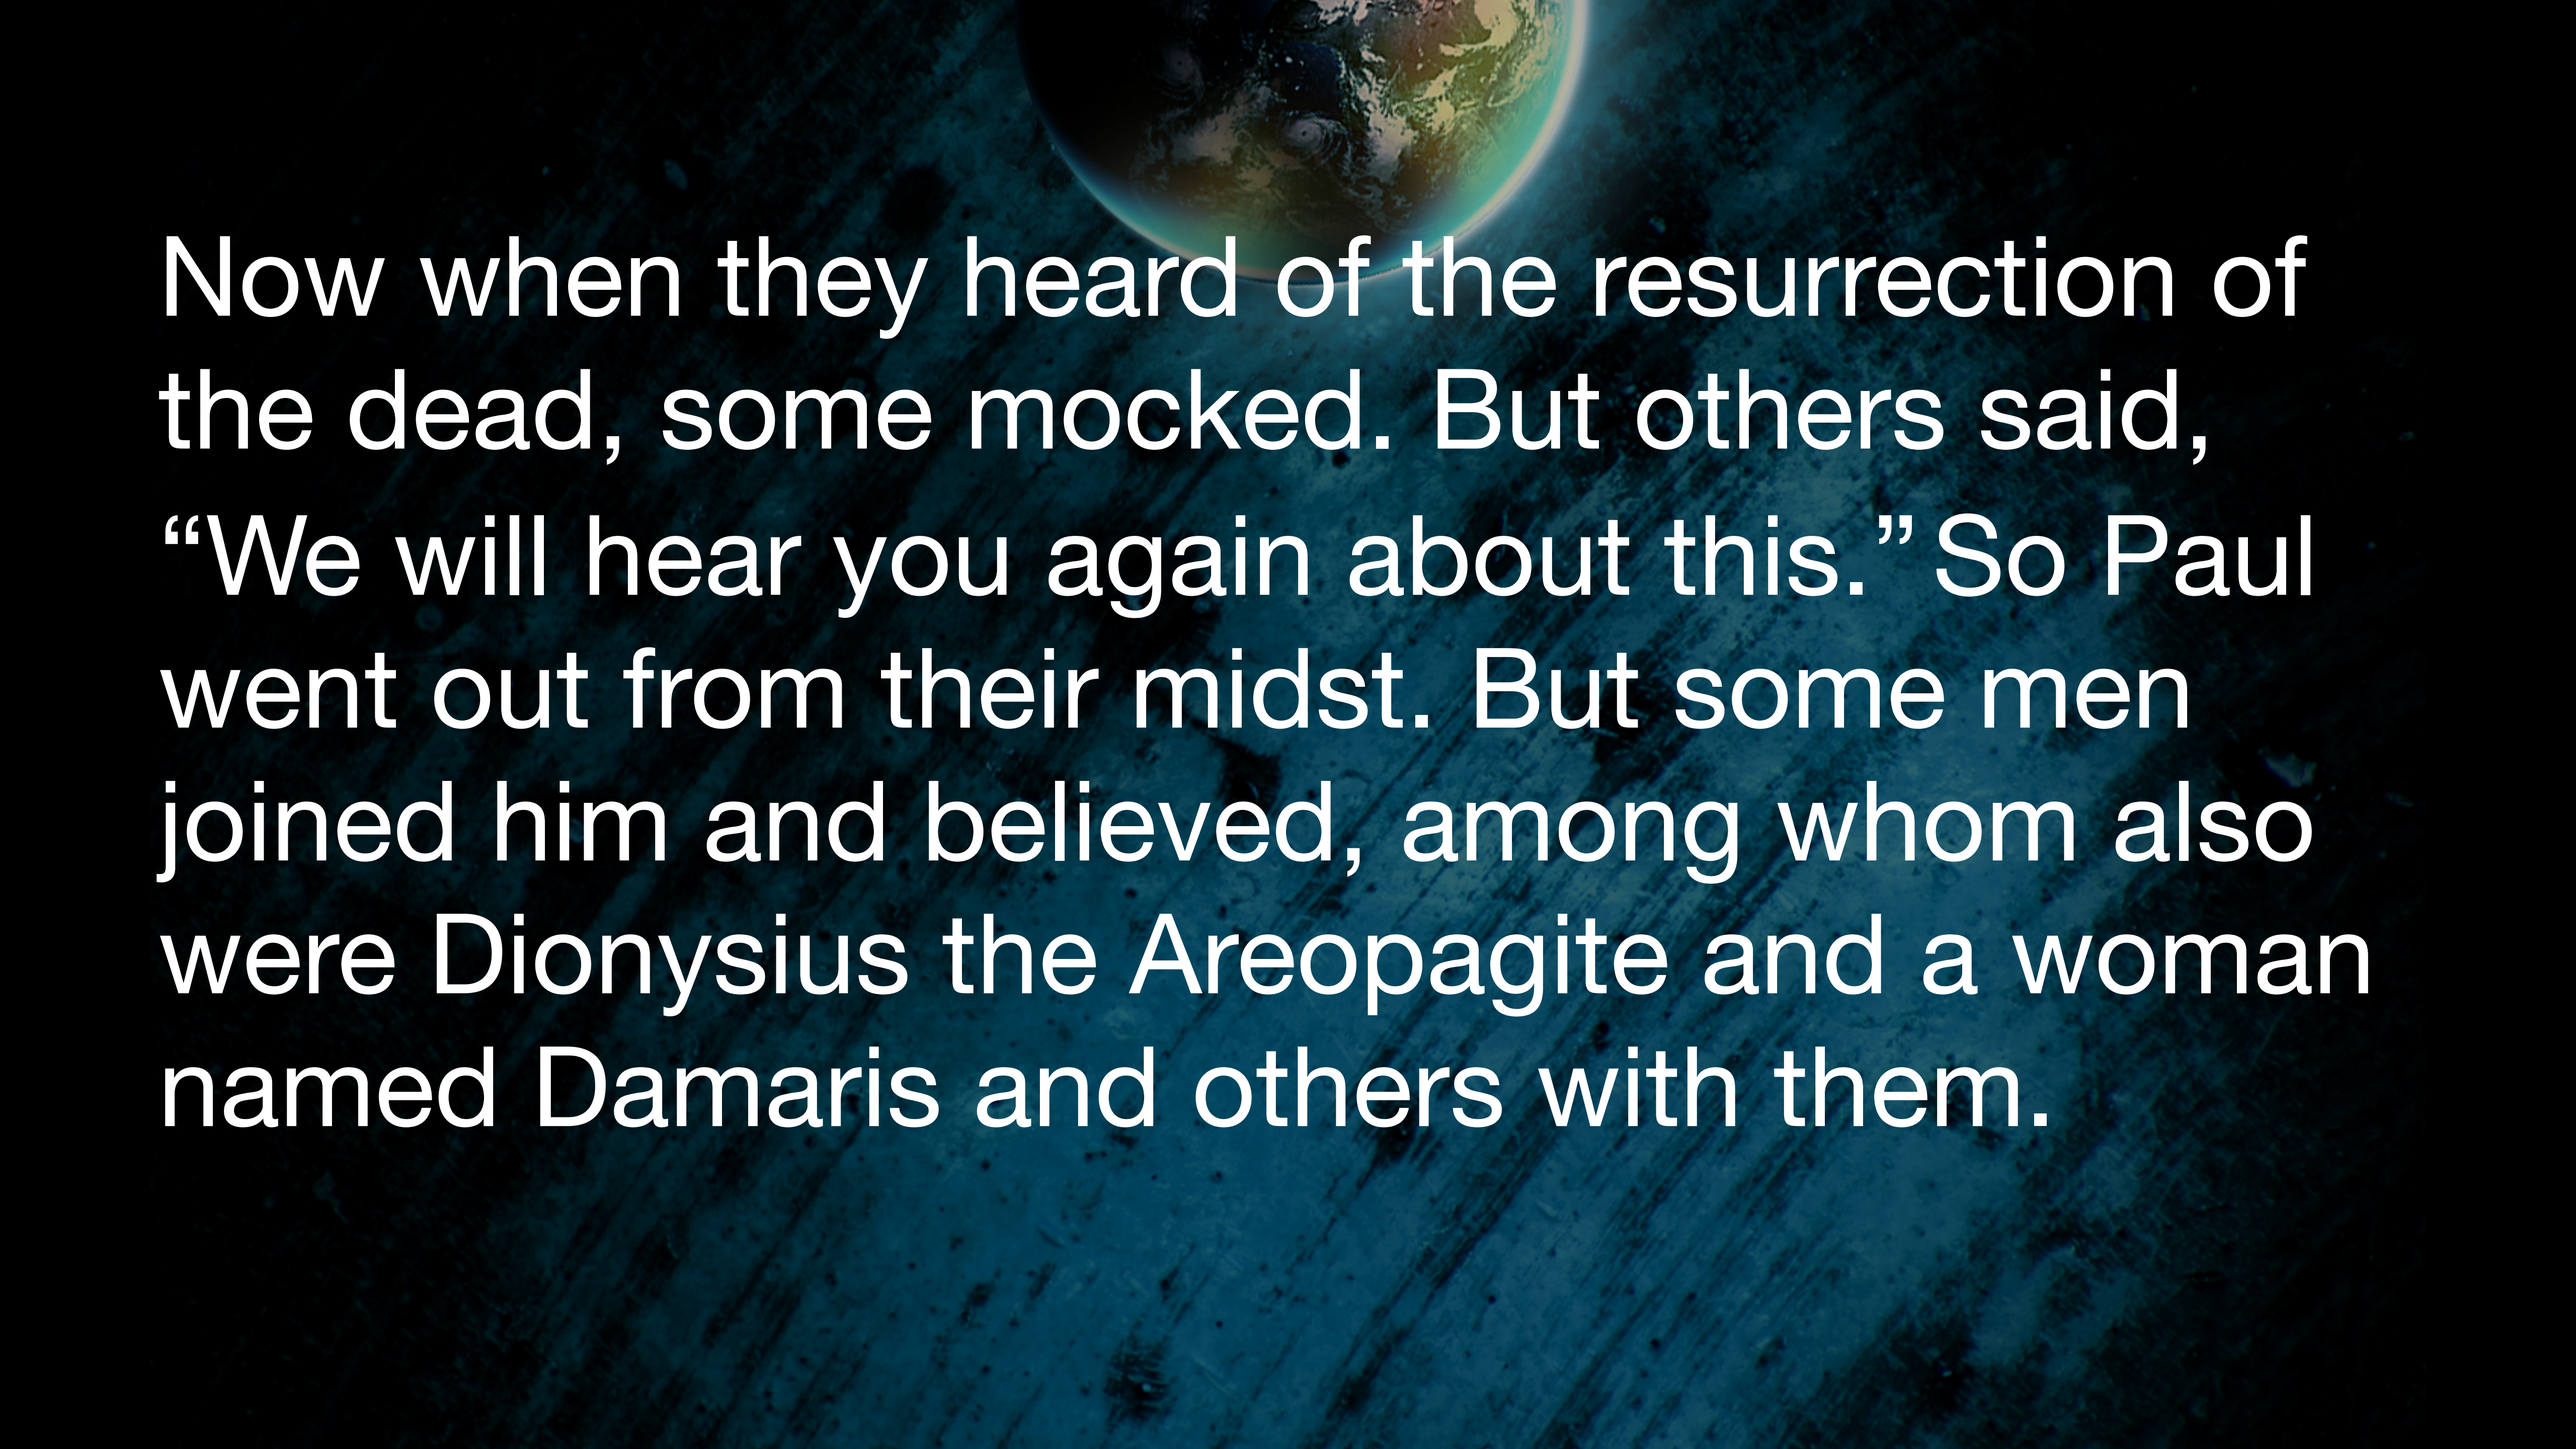

"But our God is in the heavens; He does whatever He pleases."

Psalm 115:3

“Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.”
Matthew 11:28-29 NIV

“Therefore, having overlooked the times of ignorance, God now commands all people everywhere to repent, because He has set a day when He is going to judge the world in righteousness by the Man He has appointed. He has provided proof of this to everyone by raising Him from the dead.”

Now when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked. But others said, “We will hear you again about this.” So Paul went out from their midst. But some men joined him and believed, among whom also were Dionysius the Areopagite and a woman named Damaris and others with them.

contempt - some mock curiosity - want to hear more
