

Group Questions

1. Have you ever been on a mission trip? If so describe it and share with the group.
  - a. What was your biggest take away from your missions experience?
  - b. If this church were to try and put together a mission trip, in your opinion, where should we go and what should we do?
2. When you think about missions what comes to your mind normally?
3. Which missions organization were you most excited to hear about today? Why?
  - a. What stood out to you about their ministry?
4. When you think about the church budget for missions what do you think is the appropriate amount to give to missions? Why do you think this?
  - a. How much should be designated to local missions? How do you define local?
  - b. How much should be designated to international missions?
  - c. How should we determine who we support and how much?
  - d. When and how should we switch mission support amounts?
5. Do you have any missions / missionaries you personally support? If so tell the group about them and what they do... When did you start supporting them, how did you hear about them, should our church consider them, why?