

Theories that _____ the Resurrection.

_____ for the Resurrection.

_____Arguments for the Resurrection.

Why is the Resurrection _____?

[illegible]

Group Questions

1. Which of the three resurrection options—False, Fiction, or Fact—do you think is most common in our culture today? Why? How do you think that option shapes people's lives?
2. Of the theories that reject the resurrection, which have you encountered before? Which one do you think sounds most convincing at first?
3. Mark 16:8 ends with fear and silence. Why do you think the Gospel ends so abruptly? What does this say about the initial experience of the resurrection?
4. In 1 Corinthians 15:3, Paul calls the resurrection "of first importance." Why do you think this is the core of the gospel?
5. Which historical evidence for the resurrection stood out to you the most? Why? How could that be helpful in a conversation with someone exploring faith?
6. Why is it significant that women were the first to discover the empty tomb? How does that reflect God's heart and priorities?
7. What changes in the disciples' lives after the resurrection give you the most confidence in its truth? How can that encourage us in our own moments of fear or doubt?
8. How does the resurrection give you hope in areas like grief, loss, or uncertainty about the future? Can you share a time when this hope became personal?
9. If the resurrection is true (and it is), what should change in the way we live? What is one specific step you feel led to take this week?