

Group Questions

1. Was there anything from this weeks message that stood out to you? If so what and why?
2. What was your first job? What did you enjoy about it? What didn't you like about it? Why don't you still have it?
3. Read Isaiah 9:1-7. As you read, think about the ways Isaiah seems to be speaking directly to Israel as a means of hope. What do you find?
4. When you consider the words "Wonderful Counselor," what comes to mind?
 - a. How many different ideas come to mind when you consider the word "Counselor"? What would a counselor do? Who does a person counsel?
 - b. How has Jesus been a wonderful counselor to you personally?
5. Who is a wonderful counselor you have known? How does this relate to Jesus as the Wonderful Counselor?
6. Since we are called to be like Jesus, what does that say about our ability / call to counsel others?
 - a. How can you grow at being a better counselor?
7. How could / would / should we seek to comfort / encourage others with the fact that Jesus is a wonderful counselor?