

GROUP QUESTIONS

1. What stood out to you most about this message?
2. Do you know anyone who came to Jesus in desperation, convinced He was the only One who could help? Have you ever felt that way?
3. Are you willing to be interrupted? If you are busy helping one person, will you still take the time to help someone who is hurting? How do you prioritize?
4. Have you known anyone whose initial interest in Jesus was misguided? What deliberate steps can you and your church take to lead such a person to saving, biblical faith?
5. Have you ever been frustrated with God's timing? Have you ever felt He waited until it was too late—but then He came through? Explain.
6. When our prayers turn into demands, are we trying to manipulate God, like magicians attempt to do, or are we commanding God, as if He were our butler?
7. How would you respond to someone who urged your family to “have faith in faith”?
8. How do these stories encourage us that no person and no situation are beyond Jesus' ability to restore?
