

The _____

1. This is a _____ day
2. This is a normal _____
3. These are _____ sailors

The _____

1. The storm _____
2. The savior _____
3. The disciples _____

The _____

1. See His _____
2. Receive His _____
3. Believe His _____

The _____

1. He is the _____ of the _____
2. He is the _____ born in the _____
3. He is the _____ who was _____

NOTES: _____

Group Questions

1. When reflecting on the miracles of Jesus, which miracles stands out to you in a personally way and why?
2. How does Jesus bring peace to us in times of intense circumstances?
3. What is a storm in your life in which you are seeking to trust Jesus and needing peace to guard your heart and mind?
4. Why is it unlikely that the disciples made up this story? If you were going to make up a story about being there when Jesus calmed a storm, how would you tell it?
5. How is it comforting to know that Jesus, in His sovereignty, led the disciples into this predicament?
 - a. Read Psalm 107:23–32 and share you thoughts about this text connected with Mark 4:35-41.
6. How should the disciples have reacted to the fact that the Son of God was sleeping soundly in their boat during the storm? How does this help us as we face our own mortality?
7. Is it possible to show genuine respect (by calling Him “Teacher”) and disrespect (by accusing Him of indifference) at the same time? Can you think of a time when you questioned God’s love or justice?
8. Are you encouraged to see that the disciples who were with Jesus when He was on the earth were slow to fully understand who He was? On the other hand, do you see why we do not have an excuse to be as unperceptive as they were?
9. In what way would it be comforting to be in the presence of Jesus? In what way would it be terrifying?
10. How is the lesson “Jesus calms the storms of your life” an inadequate interpretation of this episode? What is the greater lesson?