Small Group Questions

1. Israel asked for a king “like the nations”. Where do we feel that same pull today—to be like the world instead of following God’s design?
2. Looking at Saul, David, Solomon, and the divided kingdom—what patterns do you notice in the rise and fall of human leaders? What does that teach us about the limits of human authority?
3. Which historical example (Babylon, Rome, Antichrist) struck you the most in seeing how earthly kingdoms will always rise and fall? Why?
4. Why do you think people (including us today) often resist God’s rule, even though His leadership is perfect?
5. What does it practically look like to “acknowledge God’s authority” in your decisions this week? Can you name one specific area where that’s tough?
6. In Romans 12:1–2, Paul calls us to offer ourselves as a “living sacrifice.” What part of your life is hardest to lay on the altar?
7. Jesus said, “If you love Me, keep My commandments.” How does obedience change when we see it as love rather than duty?
8. Which of the six “King Jesus realities” hit you the hardest? (Forgiven, Free, Future, Fight, Fuel, Fruit) Why that one?
9. How does knowing your King has already won the victory (Col 2:15; Rom 8) change the way you face spiritual battles or fears right now?
10. Where do you sense God inviting you to live more intentionally under His kingship—at home, work, relationships, habits, or ministry? What’s one step you can take this week?
