

Group Questions

1. Jesus says, “If anyone thirsts...” What do you think spiritual thirst looks like in a person’s life today?
2. Why do you think self-sufficiency can be such a barrier to salvation and spiritual growth?
3. Have there been seasons in your life where you tried to satisfy your soul with something other than Christ? What was the result?
4. The sermon says it is possible to know church, theology, and doctrine but still not thirst for Christ Himself. How can that happen?
5. Which substitute for Christ do you think people most commonly chase today:
 - education/knowledge,
 - busyness/achievement,
 - emotional experiences,
 - or something else? Why?
6. Jesus says, “Come to Me and drink.” What does it practically look like to come to Christ daily?
7. The sermon emphasizes both grace and faith. Why is it important to hold both truths together when talking about salvation?
8. What are some signs that a believer has become spiritually dry or stagnant? What helps restore spiritual vitality?
9. Jesus promises “rivers of living water” through the Holy Spirit. In what ways should the Spirit overflow from a believer’s life into others?
10. The sermon ends by contrasting a “pitcher pump religion” with an “artesian well relationship.” Which description better reflects your current spiritual life, and why?