

_____ a _____ Life

a. _____ and _____

b. _____ and _____

c. _____ Problems

Overcome by _____ / _____ / _____

_____ a _____ Life

a. Not _____

b. Not _____

c. Not _____

d. Not _____

_____ a _____ Life

a. The _____ — refuses to remove the grave clothes

b. The _____ — tries to steal life from others

c. The _____ — lacks substance

d. The _____ — feeds off the life of others

e. The _____ — does not recognize the absence of life

_____ a _____ Life

_____ a _____ Life

1. A life of _____

2. A life of _____

3. A life of _____

Group Questions

1. Read John 11:25–26. What does Jesus mean when He says, “I am the resurrection and the life”? How is receiving new life different from merely becoming a better person?
2. What are some ways people might depend on Christian habits, family heritage, church attendance, or Bible knowledge instead of trusting in Christ Himself?
3. What evidence of new spiritual life—such as changed desires, repentance, love, or obedience—have you seen in yourself or someone you know?
4. Read John 11:43–44. Why do you think Jesus involved others in removing Lazarus’s grave clothes? What does this teach us about the church’s role in discipleship?
5. What “grave clothes” from your former way of life are you still tempted to put back on or refuse to remove?
6. Consider the five pictures of the “walking dead”: the mummy, ghoul, ghost, vampire, and zombie. Which warning challenges you most, and why?
7. Do people usually feel spiritually strengthened or depleted after spending time with you? What could you do to become more encouraging and life-giving?
8. How can our small group become a safe and loving “unbind him” community where people can confess sin, receive prayer, find accountability, and grow in obedience?
9. Read John 12:10–11. Why did Lazarus’s transformed life draw some people toward Jesus while provoking opposition from others? How should we respond when following Christ brings rejection?
10. Lazarus’s presence became a testimony even though Scripture records no sermon from him. What change in your life would be difficult to explain apart from Jesus, and how could God use it to point someone else to Christ?