Group Questions

1. Was there any one thing that stood out to you that you would like to talk with the group about? What was it and why did it stand out to you?
2. How would you describe the answer to this question in your own words? (If God is good and powerful why does evil exist?)
3. Why did Pastor Jon start his message with God is God? Why does this point matter for this message?
 - a. How should having a full biblical view of God shape our response to evil?
4. Who should we blame for sin? (satan, demons, humans, God) Who do we normally blame for sin? Why is that your answer?
 - a. Why might someone who does not know God blame Him for sin?
5. What does the Bible teach us about God's character, and God's approach to evil?
6. Can you be content, like Job, with trusting God during great suffering—without answers but with God's presence and sovereignty? What makes this harder or easier for you?
7. How should the fact that God did, will, and is dealing with sin effect us in our every day lives?
 - a. How does this impact our call to forgive one another?
8. The problem with pain is real, how would you help someone struggling with chronic pain apply this?
