

GROUP QUESTIONS

1. What stood out to you most from this weeks message?
2. How would you respond to a Christian who questions, in this modern day, whether we still need to believe in angels and demons?
3. What were some of the ways the Devil debased this man? How do people these days end up being disgraced when they listen to the Devil's lies?
4. Why does demonic activity ultimately lead to suicidal despair? Why is Jesus the only decisive answer to such despair?
5. Why/How do the demons know precisely who Jesus is?
6. How is Jesus' command to the demons different from the way exorcism is portrayed in the movies?
7. Have you ever seen someone come to Christ, and the people around him or her are more concerned with trivial matters than with the salvation of souls? How did you respond? How did that make you feel?
8. In what ways can someone who has just been saved be a better evangelist than someone who has been a Christian and studied the Bible for a long time? How can the latter improve his or her message?
9. Describe a scenario where Jesus might change someone you know so that they would once again be in their right mind and come home. Pray for that person.
