GROUP QUESTIONS

1. Is there any one thing that stood out to you this week from the message?
2. Have you ever thought of lust as referring to something other than sexual issues? Why do you think expanding our understanding of lust might be important? Why is dealing with sexual sin from the pulpit important?
3. Do you agree that lust starts with a look? Why or why not?
4. What are some places or situations that people might be tempted to lust?
 - a. What are tangible practical ways we can seek to avoid these temptations?

Split into men and women only groups and discuss the following:

1. Where are you in your walk right now with this sin? (failing, faltering, struggling, victorious, etc.) Define and explain your answer.
 - a. Where and when are you most tempted? What does accountability mean to you? To whom and how are you seeking to be held accountable?
 - b. What are you currently doing to see victory over this sin in your life?
 - c. How can this group of fellow believers help you most? (brainstorm together for practical goals)
2. How do points 5 & 7 bring you the most hope?
