

WALLS AND WELLS

Nehemiah's Journey of Restoration

WEEK 4

Justice, Generosity, and Internal Corruption

October 4 · Nehemiah 5:1–19

Discipleship questions for table groups, huddles, or one-on-one conversations.

- 1 Nehemiah got angry at injustice instead of staying indifferent to it. Where do you tend toward indifference when righteous anger would actually be the right response?
- 2 Is there anyone in your life — an employee, a family member, someone who depends on you — whose vulnerability you might be benefiting from, even without meaning to?
- 3 Nehemiah's process was: feel the anger, ponder it before God, then confront directly. Which step do you usually skip — do you react too fast, or avoid the confrontation altogether?
- 4 Real repentance in this story came with restitution, not just an apology. Is there a wrong you need to actually make right this week, not just say sorry for?
- 5 Nehemiah forfeited benefits he was owed to fund generosity for others. What's one entitlement or comfort you could give up this week and redirect toward someone who can't repay you?
