

WALLS AND WELLS

Nehemiah's Journey of Restoration

WEEK 3

Opposition, Discouragement, and Pressing On

September 27 · Nehemiah 4:1–23; 6:1–16

Discipleship questions for table groups, huddles, or one-on-one conversations.

- 1 What's the “fox joke” in your life right now — the mocking voice, internal or external, that tries to make your work of faith feel absurd?
- 2 Nehemiah's people hit discouragement right at the halfway point — too far in to quit painlessly, too far from done to see the finish. Where are you at that exact mile marker right now?
- 3 Nehemiah's pattern was prayer and practical action together, never one instead of the other. Which one are you currently leaning on alone?
- 4 What is your “plain of Ono” — the recurring invitation or distraction most likely to pull you off the work God has actually given you?
- 5 Practice saying it out loud this week: “I am carrying on a great work and I cannot come down.” What specifically will you have to decline in order to mean it?
