PRAYER LIST

Please be in prayer for those on this list and those in your heart.

A Prayer for People Who Have Problems I May Not Know Anything About

Dear Lord, You know every detail of every person's life. We pray earnestly for wholeness and healing to be granted to these, Your children, knowing that their burdens are in Your hands. In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Martha's Musings

Like many retirees, I enjoy volunteering. I currently enjoy my work at Handcrafts Unlimited on the Square, which is the oldest continuing operating store on the Square. The shop is a consignment store for people aged 50 and above to sell their homemade crafts. But for me, the coolest thing about this shop is that the employees are all volunteers. There has never been a paid employee. I have also volunteered at the Williamson County Museum, on Austin Avenue, just across from the courthouse. I worked as a docent and in the cataloging department, where each donated item has an index card with a full description. But my favorite volunteering effort is here at St. John's, where I lead the Prayer Team Ministry, teach an adult Sunday School class, am a member of the Global Methodist Women, and am chairperson of the newly formed Council of Ministries. This group meets once a month and the chairs of all the ministries at St. John's are the attendees. Together we review what each of our groups is doing and how we can support one another. This group is the brain-child of Pastor Roger, who has other ideas up his sleeve, I assure you. Should you be interested in volunteering your time, St John's has a plethora of ways for you to help yourself, your church, and your community. More information is forthcoming about these different ministries, but please consider participating. Matthew 18:20 says "Where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in the midst of them." Food for thought.

Blessings,
Martha Arizpe, St. John's Prayer Team
