PREPARING

Dear Lord,
give me the truths
which are veiled by the doctrine and article of faith, which are masked by the pious words of sermons and books.

Let my eyes penetrate the veil, and tear off the mask,

that I may see your truth,

face-to-face.

From "John of the Cross", translated by Edgar Allison Peers.

Call to Worship

Uriel Herinirina

Come, let us gather in the presence of Christ
We come with open hands and expectant hearts
Love is poured out, costly and bold
So we pour out our hearts in praise
Let us worship with wonder and devotion,
And may the fragrance of our worship fill this place.

Scripture Reading

John 12:1-8

Six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. There they gave a dinner for him. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at the table with him. Mary took a pound of costly perfume made of pure nard, anointed Jesus' feet, and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume. But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was about to betray him), said, 'Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor?' (He said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief; he kept the common purse and used to steal what was put into it.) Jesus said, 'Leave her alone. She bought it so that she might keep it for the day of my burial. You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me.'

We'll kick things off with a complimentary dinner from 5–6pm, followed by light gardening, cleaning, and organizing projects from 6–8pm. Bring your favorite gardening tool, knee pad, or cleaning gloves—whatever suits the task you'd like to help with. To help us plan for food, please RSVP to Anji at: office@glendalecitychurch.org. Thank you!

CODA Market Night Tonight at 6pm: Join us for an evening of food, refreshing drinks, one-of-a-kind thrift finds, and handcrafted community art. Enjoy music and live spoken word poetry as you shop, snack, and meet new friends in our GCC courtyard!

Bristol Farms Volunteers: A big thank you to all of the volunteers helping out each Sunday as we pick up food deliveries from Bristol Farms! We're looking for two more volunteers who can commit to once per month and help us sort out the delivered food between 9:30-10:30am on Sunday mornings. (You'll even get to take home some free groceries!) If you're interested, please let Rebecca know by emailing: rebecca@glendalecitychurch.org.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Help Make Sabbath Morning Special: We're looking for two volunteers to help the current team prepare and serve breakfast on Sabbath mornings—and for greeters to welcome folks at the Fellowship Hall door between 9:00–9:30am. Whether you can help once a month or more often, we'd be appreciative! For more details, email: rebecca@glendalecitychurch.org.

Noon Concert - July 30th: GCC will host the next Noon Concert featuring renowned flutist-composer Daniel Kessner and celebrated pianist Eric Charnofsky. They will be performing original works that blend classical structure with jazz, Japanese, and modern influences. Of special note will be the American premiere of the piece Fleeting Thoughts, and the bass flute debut of Echo, with notes that encourage the performers to use a “jazz/be-bop” approach to articulation and rhythmic alterations. Join us for this unique, musical experience!
