*CALL TO WORSHIP

We carry our worries in our invisible suitcase. It is overflowing with concerns over health, money, family, and much more.

We will breathe in the peace of this sacred space and breathe out the tensions of life.

Our worries mask the colors of the rainbow and shout out the songs of the birds.

We will pull off the veil so our sight is restored. We will unstop our ears so we can hear.

Our worries bind us to past events and the uncertain future.

We will ground ourselves in the present, recognizing God in the here and now.

God is present in the everyday moments if we but open ourselves to the divine.

In the middle of the chaos of our lives, we will find peace.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
