Open Up

If someone were to ask you what Jesus' death and resurrection means to you, what would you say?

Dig In

Sunday we looked at: Three Questions To Help You Get The Most Out Of God's Word.

In this study, we want to explore ways you can answer those three questions for five events found in John 18-20. On Sunday, we shared one answer for each. Take time and think of multiply other ways you could answer the three questions for each event.

Event #1: Betrayal & Arrest (Read 18:1-11)...

What do I learn about God?

How should it change me?

How should it impact my relationship with others?

Event #2: Peter Denies Jesus (Read 18:15-18)...

What do I learn about God?

How should it change me?

How should it impact my relationship with others?

Event #3: Jesus Before Pilate (Read 18:28-40)...

What do I learn about God?

How should it change me?

How should it impact my relationship with others?

Event #4: Jesus' Death (Read 19:16-30)...

What do I learn about God?

How should it change me?

How should it impact my relationship with others?

Event #5: Jesus' Resurrection (Read 20:1-31)...

What do I learn about God?

How should it change me?

How should it impact my relationship with others?
