"Become As I Am" Galatians 4:8-20

Discussion Questions:

1. How can we know when we've turned good works into idols? (v8-11)
2. If you are in Christ, God knows you (v9)! How is that truth to keep us from turning to idols?
3. Consider the times you've experienced division or friction in our church. How might you have contributed to that division through pride/seeking to justify yourself by your works? (v12-16)
4. In what ways are you aware of your own weakness right now in your life? Are you embracing it in humility or fleeing from it in pride?
5. What is your typical reaction when you encounter weakness in others within our church?
6. Paul describes two kinds of relationships - (1) seeking others good for personal gain, (2) true affection that is willing to suffer for others good. Consider your own life. What characterizes your relationships?

Prayer Topics:

- Fleeing selfish pride that leads to division
- Embracing weakness in humble dependence on Jesus
- Mutual love that is willing to suffer for each other's good
