

The Responsibilities of Christian Maturity

Romans 15:1-3

Romans: The Great Exchange

What responsibilities do mature believers have toward weaker Christians?

First, ask “How do I _____ myself? Am I _____ or _____?”

Marks of Christian _____ an understanding of _____ a realization that _____ don't contribute to an _____ faith

a commitment to genuine _____ motivated by _____ and _____ willing to _____ from _____ things for others

Marks of Christian _____

a propensity to see _____ as indicative of motivated by fear of _____ motivated by fear of _____ others motivated by fear of _____ God a faith that can be rocked by _____ in others a tendency to be easily _____ and apt to _____ Make sure that your _____ is demonstrated through _____ to lay down _____

Make sure that your _____ is a motivation to _____ Second, renew your commitment to strive for _____ and _____ (14:19) by being . . .

obligated to bear the _____ of the weak obligated to _____ self-satisfaction obligated to seek the _____ of my neighbor obligated to _____ my neighbor

Third, _____ to Christ to _____ Christ

Christ did not _____ Himself Christ took the _____ (_____) of others on Himself

Bearing the weaknesses and failures of others is at the _____ of the

_____.

When I gave Him my _____, I received the capacity to bear the _____ of others.