

“I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at home in my palace,
contented and prosperous.”

Daniel 4.4 NIV

"I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at ease in my house and flourishing in my palace.”

Daniel 4.4 NASB

Daniel 4.19

“Then Daniel, whose name is Belteshazzar, was appalled for a while as his thoughts alarmed him. The king responded and said, ‘Belteshazzar, do not let the dream or its interpretation alarm you.’ Belteshazzar replied, ‘My lord, if only the dream applied to those who hate you and its interpretation to your adversaries!’ NASB

1. We Forget The Source Of Our Success

“As he looked out across the city, he said, ‘Look at this great city of Babylon! By my own mighty power, I have built this beautiful city as my royal residence to display my majestic splendor.’ Daniel 4.30 NLT

“Unless the Lord builds the house, those who build it labor in vain.” Psalm 127.1 ESV

“The Lord detests the proud; they will surely be punished.” Proverbs 16.5 NLT

2. We Don't Pay Attention To Warning Signs

Daniel 4.24-25a

“This is the interpretation, Your Majesty, and this is the decree the Most High has issued against my lord the king: 25 You will be driven away from people and will live with the wild animals; you will eat grass like the ox and be drenched with the dew of heaven.” NIV

Deuteronomy 8.10-11

“When you have eaten your fill, be sure to praise the Lord your God for the good land he has given you. “But that is the time to be careful! Beware that in your plenty you do not forget the Lord your God and disobey his commands, regulations, and decrees that I am giving you today.” NLT

3. We Put Off Doing What's Right

“Twelve months later he was walking on the roof of the royal palace of Babylon.” Daniel 4.29 NASB

Daniel 4.34-35a

“After this time had passed, I, Nebuchadnezzar, looked up to heaven. My sanity returned, and I praised and worshiped the Most High and honored the one who lives forever. His rule is everlasting, and his kingdom is eternal. All the people of the earth are nothing compared to him.” NLT
