

2 Chronicles 14.11

“Then Asa cried out to the LORD his God, ‘O LORD, no one but you can help the powerless against the mighty! Help us, O LORD our God, for we trust in you alone. It is in your name that we have come against this vast horde. O LORD, you are our God; do not let mere men prevail against you!’”

“Lord, I realize how weak I am and how strong you are.”

“No one but you can help.”

“Lord, all my eggs are in the ‘Trust-God’ basket.”

“We trust in you alone.”

“Lord, I believe there’s something about your name.”

“It’s in your name that we come.”

“Lord, this concerns me and you.”

“Do not let mere men prevail against you.”

Numbers 14.13, 15-16

“But Moses objected. ‘What will the Egyptians think when they hear about it?’ he asked the LORD. ‘They know full well the power you displayed in rescuing your people from Egypt. Now if you slaughter all these people with a single blow, the nations that have heard of your fame will say, ‘The LORD was not able to bring them into the land he swore to give them, so he killed them in the wilderness.’

“Lord, I’m going to talk directly to you.”

“O Lord, you are our God.”
