SAY “HELLO” TO FFMC!

We're all missing seeing each other's faces right now, aren't we? Well, let's do something about it! Send us a video saying a quick, “Hello,” to FFMC, or a photo of your family watching online worship. We will compile these photos and short videos (only a few seconds, please!) into a montage to show on a future Sunday. Drop Your Media Here >

SERVE SUNDAY: SAVE THE DATE!

On Sun, Aug 30, we're going to gather outside (location TBD), while wearing masks and social distancing, for one worship service at 10 am before scattering throughout the city to serve. This Serve Sunday has been planned, in part, by FFMC's Outreach Committee. We are excited for the tangible impact it will have on our city! For now, save the date and be on the lookout for more details. The 10 am worship service will also be streamed online.

DISCUSSION/REFLECTION QS

Q1. What is a recent conspiracy or end time theory you have seen in the world today? // Q2. As you have studied the book of Revelation this summer, what do you think are the main themes of the book? // Q3. What do you think of the idea of being called out? Called out of the power-seeking empires of our day and into the kingdom of God? What does that look like for us? // Q4. What are some ways we could move away from the temptations of wealth and power and into the kingdom of God?

FFMC TO REMAIN ONLINE THIS FALL

Based on Washington State's most up-to-date guidelines for churches and the discernment of FFMC's Leadership Team, our worship services and programming will remain online for the start of the fall season. FFMC's pastors, staff, and Leadership Team will be in communication with you about how this will impact programming and ministries, as well as to outline several exciting opportunities to connect with others and grow spiritually during a unique season in the life of our church and our world. Thanks for your patience as we all navigate this together!

EMAILS IMPERSONATING PASTOR MATT

Someone from our community recently received an email from someone impersonating Pastor Matt. If you get an email that is not from an @ffmc.org address and is requesting a favor, it is not from Pastor Matt.
