II. EXAMINING TEN GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF BIBLICAL INTERPRETATION.

A. WHAT Are They?

1. There are three basic steps to Bible study:

- a. You must _____ the text. This answers the question... "What does this say?"
- b. You must _____ the text. This answers the question... "What does this mean?"
- c. You must _____ the text. This answers the question... "Where and how does this apply?"

2. The goal of biblical interpretation is to _____ the _____ of the text as it was _____ intended.

3. Interpret the Bible _____, taking words, phrases, and sentences in their usual, normal, natural, customary sense.

* Example: Genesis _____ explains Genesis _____

* What is the opposite of this?

- The opposite of the literal, or normal, interpretation is _____ interpretation, looking for secret or deeper meanings than the apparent or historical one.

 - I am the _____
 - I am the _____
 - I am _____
 - I am _____

* What must you pay close attention to?

David Cooper's Golden Rule of Interpretation: When the plain sense of Scripture makes common sense, seek no other sense. Therefore, take every word at its primary, ordinary, usual meaning, unless the facts of the immediate context, studied in light of related passages and axiomatic and fundamental truths, indicate clearly otherwise.

5. Interpret a verse by _____ it with other parts of Scripture to arrive at a correct biblical understanding.

* The 4 C's of Bible interpretation:
