Jeff Huisjen

The _____ of the Christian life is to be more _____ Christ.
(2 Corinthians 3:18, Romans 8:29)

If we want to _____ like Jesus, we should look _____ Jesus.

Don't let _____ take your eyes off of _____. (Matthew 14:22-23)

Don't let _____ things be _____.
(Revelation 2:1-7, John 5:39)

Without _____, nothing we do _____. (John 15:5-8)

Go Deeper:

1. If you had to sum up the goal of the Christian life, what would you say it is? What did Jeff say the goal was in his sermon? Did the sermon change your perspective on the goal of the Christian life? Why or why not? If that a hard goal to achieve? Why or why not?
2. Is it important to you to look like Jesus? Why or why not? What do you think is the best way to try to look like Jesus? What things may get in the way of us looking like Christ?
3. Read Matthew 14:22-33. What do you think happened in this story? Why did Peter start to sink? What distractions do you have in your own life that are taking your eyes off Jesus? How can you start the process of refocusing on Jesus?
4. Read Revelation 2:1-7. Have you read these verses before? How do they make you feel? What was the big complaint that was held against that church? Have you ever felt that way about your own life with Jesus?
5. What does it mean to not let secondary things become primary? How do you think this applies to our faith? What is primary in our faith? Are there any secondary things that you've let become primary?
6. Read John 15:5-8. What is Jesus communicating here? Do you believe that without Him you can do nothing? Why or why not? Where are you in your faith right now? Are you keeping your eyes on Jesus?
