Go Deeper:

1. Jesus was burned by many different people during His lifetime. Think of another time He was burned by others. How did He respond? Did He stay or walk away?
2. Why do you think it was important for Jesus to train and equip His disciples to do what He did?
3. How does God train and equip us today?
4. What was the 2-part test Jesus gave to His disciples to determine whether to stay or walk away?
5. Why do you think Jesus said at least one or the other should be true rather than both?
6. According to Romans 12:17-20, how should we go about "returning the burn" on those who have wronged us?
7. How does the Christlike response we should have differ from how our society typically reacts?
