Go Deeper:

1. If God asked you to do all the things He asked Hosea to do, do you think you would respond the same way Hosea did? Why or why not?
2. Read Hosea 4:6. In what circumstances have you seen the truth of this verse?
3. What do you think it means to "reap the whirlwind"? Do you think "reaping the whirlwind" is good, bad, or both?
4. Read Hosea chapters 4-10. What types of rebellion do you notice from the Israelites, and what consequences do they face as a result of their own foolish decisions?
5. What kinds of consequences have you faced for your own rebellion against God and His Word?
6. What good news did Hosea share with the Israelites in Hosea 10:12, and how does that relate to your and those whom you love?
