Made for _____ (Matthew 22:24, Proverbs 20:19 NLT, Matthew 22:35-36)

Loving _____ means loving _____ others. (Matthew 22:37-40, John 14:15, Matthew 5:43-47)

Go Deeper:

1. In what ways do you believe God created you in His image?
2. Why do you think it is important that God created you in His image?
3. Do you think the expert in the law agreed with Jesus' response to his question? Why or why not?
4. Make a quick list of things you feel Christians are "supposed" to do (ie. don't lie, don't cheat, don't steal, etc). Reviewing your own list, which ones fit in the "loving God" category and which fit in the "loving others" category?
5. Which do you feel is more difficult: loving God or loving others? Why?
6. Think of someone who is difficult for you to love. If you are made for more love, how can you show that person more love? (Pro Tip: Take this exercise one step further and ask a few other Christ followers how they think you can show love to someone who is hard to love.)
