

The New Wilderness
Week #7

TEACHING (Post Discussion)

Our "wilderness walking", as the new covenant assembly (church), is superior to the wilderness walking of the old covenant assembly (Israel) because of:

1. Better _____

2. Better _____

Communion:

We take the bread to: _____

We take the cup to: _____

TABLE DISCUSSION (20 min)

Rev 21 - 22:5 Outline

The Final Dwelling Proclaimed - Rev 21:1-8 gives a big picture view of what is coming at the end. Read through these verses and briefly share your thoughts on the verses and/or the following:

- No Sea
- God's dwelling comes down
- No more sorrows and pain
- It's not for everyone

The Final Dwelling Described – Rev 21:9-27 comes in close to describe the final dwelling with God. The description is highly symbolic to communicate huge important theological point/truths. Read through and briefly talk about what the following might be communicating.

- Twelve gates of pearl (three on every side), named after the twelve tribes of Israel
- Twelve foundations, named after the twelve Apostles
- The city is a perfect cube

The Final Dwelling Compared – Rev 22:1-5 describes life in the completed New Creation as compared to life in the completed Old Creation (Eden). Read through these verses together and talk about the advantages of life in the New Creation vs. the Old.

TABLE DISCUSSION (20 min)

Rev 21 - 22:5 Outline

The Final Dwelling Proclaimed - Rev 21:1-8 gives a big picture view of what is coming at the end. Read through these verses and briefly share your thoughts on the verses and/or the following:

- No Sea
- God's dwelling comes down
- No more sorrows and pain
- It's not for everyone

The Final Dwelling Described – Rev 21:9-27 comes in close to describe the final dwelling with God. The description is highly symbolic to communicate huge important theological point/truths. Read through and briefly talk about what the following might be communicating.

- Twelve gates of pearl (three on every side), named after the twelve tribes of Israel
- Twelve foundations, named after the twelve Apostles
- The city is a perfect cube

The Final Dwelling Compared – Rev 22:1-5 describes life in the completed New Creation as compared to life in the completed Old Creation (Eden). Read through these verses together and talk about the advantages of life in the New Creation vs. the Old.

TABLE DISCUSSION (20 min)

Rev 21 - 22:5 Outline

The Final Dwelling Proclaimed - Rev 21:1-8 gives a big picture view of what is coming at the end. Read through these verses and briefly share your thoughts on the verses and/or the following:

- No Sea
- God's dwelling comes down
- No more sorrows and pain
- It's not for everyone

The Final Dwelling Described – Rev 21:9-27 comes in close to describe the final dwelling with God. The description is highly symbolic to communicate huge important theological point/truths. Read through and briefly talk about what the following might be communicating.

- Twelve gates of pearl (three on every side), named after the twelve tribes of Israel
- Twelve foundations, named after the twelve Apostles
- The city is a perfect cube

The Final Dwelling Compared – Rev 22:1-5 describes life in the completed New Creation as compared to life in the completed Old Creation (Eden). Read through these verses together and talk about the advantages of life in the New Creation vs. the Old.