

COLLISION

WHERE FAITH AND FRUSTRATION MEET
THE BOOK OF HABAKKUK

JANUARY 19, 2020

SERMON BY: PASTOR DAVID

VISION CHANGES EVERYTHING

HABAKKUK 1:1-4; 2:1-3

1. A vision must be _____
2. A vision must be _____
3. A vision must be _____
4. A vision must be _____

NEXT STEPS:

1. Today, I'm committing to evaluate my thoughts, actions, and prayers to see if they full of negativity and complaints to God. If so, today I'm also committing to having balance in those same areas.
2. Today, I'm committing to set aside at least 15 minutes a day to get away the noise in order to pray and seek God's vision for my life, family, and church. I will also write down what God reveals to me.
3. This week, I will seek out wise counsel regarding a decision I'm about to make or to receive counsel regarding an area of weakness or struggle.
4. This week, I will find a way to bless and encourage at least two (2) people who are in need.

WORSHIP: GLORIOUS DAY, LIVING HOPE, BECAUSE HE LIVES, WAY MAKER

20 DAYS
OF PRAYER
FOR 2020

1/12 | Thank God for His goodness to TBC in 2019.

1/13 | Pray for your church staff by name.

1/14 | Pray that God would give us His vision for the next 3-5 years.

1/15 | Pray that TBC would be faithful to accomplish the mission God gives us.

1/16 | Pray for our Discipleship Ministries; the launch of new groups, spiritual growth, and for new people to get connected.

1/17 | Pray for the unity of TBC as we enter a new decade of ministry and experience changes in leadership.

1/18 | Pray for our worship services; for those leading and participating to be full of excitement, joy and passion.

1/19 | Pray for the marriages and families in our church to be strengthened, Christ-centered, and an example to others.

1/20 | Pray that TBC would become a balanced church; one focused on both evangelism and discipleship.
