Summer is a great time to travel and see new places. The hard part is what to pack and take with you. Sometimes, we take so much gear and carry so much with us, that it is hard to stop and enjoy what is around us. Join us for this series, "Packing Light," as we explore Psalm 23 and find the rest and refreshment our souls need.

MESSAGE: YOU PREPARE A TABLE

MISSION TRIP REPORT

A big THANK YOU to everyone who supported the High School Mission Trip to Unicoi, Tennessee. The students helped clean up a local ministry, prepared a home to be re-occupied after a devastating flood, assisted with a handicap ramp, and started work on a shower at a local church. Kyle said: "We are serving people with REAL needs, doing REAL kingdom work, making REAL connections, and taking FAITH to the next level." What a fantastic experience!

"You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows." Psalm 23:5 (NIV)

"You prepare a feast for me in the presence of my enemies. You honor me by anointing my head with oil. My cup overflows with blessings." Psalm 23:5 (NLT)

"God heals the brokenhearted and bandages up their wounds." Psalm 147:3

"God will help you overflow with hope in him through the Holy Spirit's power within you." Romans 15:13

MY NOTES:

GETTING STARTED

What was the toughest hike or climb you ever made? How did you prepare for it?

REFLECTION/DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What does it mean to you that you have a place at God's table—that he prepares for you and drives the enemies away?
2. What kind of disappointments have you had to face recently? How did you handle them?
3. Read Psalm 23:5 in both versions below. What nuances do you see in each translation? How does it relate to your understanding?
4. Read Psalm 147:3 below. Share an example of a time when God did this for you.
5. After a large disappointment or severe hurt, which is easiest for you—the "be-still stage" or the "get-moving stage?" Why?
6. What would you like your cup to overflow with? What are you grateful for today?
7. What are the prayer requests on your mind and heart today?

PRAYER: Lord God, thank you for being the One that we can bring all of our disappointments to in life. You care about each one. We confess that we don't often allow your healing oil to soothe our wounds. Help us to come to you. May our "cup" in life overflow with hope, with love, and with joy. In the name of Christ, we pray, Amen.

GOING DEEPER: Read Psalm 23:1-6, slowly, working to commit these verses to memory. The scene changes in vs. 5 from a field to a feast. Why would David include this imagery? How does it relate to "oil" and healing wounds? How can repeated disappointments in life lead to bitterness? Make a list of your biggest disappointments and take each one to the Lord in prayer.
