"Therefore, say to the people of Israel, 'I am the Lord. I will free you from your slavery in Egypt. I will redeem you with a powerful arm and great acts of judgment. I will claim you as my own people, and I will be your God. Then you will know that I am the Lord your God who has freed you from your oppression in Egypt. I will bring you into the land I swore to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. I will give it to you as your very own possession. I am the Lord!'" "Have the people of Israel build me a holy sanctuary so I can live among them."

Exodus 6:6-8, 25:8

MY NOTES:

GETTING STARTED

What is your usual response to rules and regulations? Why?

REFLECTION/DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Have you read the books of Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy before? What do you think their role is in God's BIG plan?
2. In Exodus 6:1-8, how does God reaffirm his trustworthiness to Moses and the Israelites?
3. In your own faith journey with God, which has more impact: a) past acts of God? b) present circumstances? c) future promises? Why?
4. What helps you stay aware of God's presence in your daily life and what distracts you from it?
5. God powerfully set his people free from slavery. Where do you desire to experience freedom in an area of your life today?
6. In the OT, priests and sacrifices were needed to draw near to God. How does knowing that Jesus is our great High Priest (Heb. 4:14-16) impact your faith and prayer life?
7. What are the prayer requests on your mind and heart today?

PRAYER: Lord God, you are majestic and holy, the essence of perfection. You continually found a way to be with your people and lead them forward. Help us to honor you with our lives. Thank you, Jesus, for being the ultimate, complete, and final sacrifice for sin. May we celebrate being made clean through your shed blood on the cross. In the name of Jesus, we pray, Amen.

GOING DEEPER: Read Exodus 33:12-23. What does Moses ask for, and what can we learn from this? What does God's response to Moses reveal about his character and his relationship with us? Moses asks to see God's glory. When was the last time you earnestly sought a deeper experience of God? What keeps you from it?
