Don't fret – trust and walk with the Lord!

Don't fret when the wicked flourish – wait on the Lord and walk by faith!

Psalms 37 (ESV) OF DAVID.

¹Fret not yourself because of evildoers;
be not envious of wrongdoers!

SUNDAY after church...

Think through your morning and: 1) List and praise the Lord for specific encouragement you were able to give! 2) List and praise the Lord for specific encouragement you received! 3) List songs or lyrics that touched your heart.

MONDAY

DISCUSSION STARTED: Read Psalm 37:1-8. “Fret” means “Kindled anger, furious, burn with anger”. As you review your week (without going into a political discussion) list things in our world that cause you to fret. Why do they kindle anger? What is the effect of this anger in your life and relationships? How does the anger effect your walk and focus with the Lord? (Remember that anger can be visible or it can be hidden within us)

TUESDAY

DISCUSSION STARTER: Read Psalm 37:1-8 again. Considering your answer to question #1 above and kindling anger, how does faith (trusting the Lord) counter this anger? Be as specific as you can.

WEDNESDAY

DISCUSSION STARTER: Read Psalm 37:3 again. Read Ephesians 2:10 from the front. If we are created and designed by Christ to express and do good works, how does anger sidetrack these efforts? Why? How does doing good works effect anger?

THURSDAY and FRIDAY

DISCUSSION STARTER: Read Psalm 37:3 again. Why does anger draw you to flee (or withdraw)? Read the verses about faithfulness. It means “to be trustworthy, able to be relied on”. Write out practical ways to can “befriend” or nurture faithfulness in your life, regarding good works. Pick one or two “next good things” and plan to do them.

SATURDAY

Prepare your heart for Sunday's gathering by being ready to fully engage in the worship.
