CHILDREN'S MESSAGE

ADVENT CANDLE LIGHTING

Cathy Brocker

First Reader: The prophet Isaiah calls to us from the past to imagine the future when God's reign will be fully realized and recognized throughout creation. When that time comes, God "shall judge between the nations and shall arbitrate for many peoples; they shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation; neither shall they learn war any more" (Isaiah 2:4).

*Please rise in body and spirit.

All: Today, we choose to live in hope, believing that the time of God's reign has come and is coming among us.

Second Reader: We light this candle of hope as a sign of our promise to follow the Light as we answer God's call to transform our hope into reality today and in the days to come.

Be The Light (verse 1)

Tune: Away in the Manger

Lyrics by Megan Waters, © 2025 Mary Scifres Ministries

Be a light of hope, steady and bright
A promise of dawn in the deep of the night
Share the hope in your heart
Let it banish all fear
The light we exalted makes God's love appear.

CONGREGATIONAL PRAYER

Margie Schriener

God of dawn and mercy, we long for your light to break into our weary night. We yearn for a peace strong enough to still the wars within and around us, a hope bright enough to scatter every shadow of fear, and a love deep enough to mend the rifts between neighbors and nations. Grant us the courage to walk in your ways, the vision to see signs of your peace, and the grace to bear your light in our world. Amen.

Come Thou Long Expected Jesus

UMH 196

CCLI / Streaming # 1256912 / 20574634

Song # 31999

1. Come, thou long expected Jesus,
born to set thy people free;
from our fears and sins release us,
let us find our rest in thee.
Israel's strength and consolation,
hope of all the earth thou art;
dear desire of every nation,
joy of every longing heart.

2. Born thy people to deliver,
born a child and yet a King,
born to reign in us forever,
now thy gracious kingdom bring.
By thine own eternal spirit
rule in all our hearts alone;
by thine all sufficient merit,
raise us to thy glorious throne.

SCRIPTURE READINGS Isaiah 2:1-5, Romans 13:11-14 Margie Schriener

Isaiah 2:1-5 (NRSVue)

The word that Isaiah son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

In days to come

 the mountain of the Lord's house
shall be established as the highest of the mountains
 and shall be raised above the hills;
all the nations shall stream to it.

 Many peoples shall come and say,
"Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord,

*Please rise in body and spirit.

to the house of the God of Jacob,
that he may teach us his ways
and that we may walk in his paths.”
For out of Zion shall go forth instruction
and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.
He shall judge between the nations
and shall arbitrate for many peoples;
they shall beat their swords into plowshares
and their spears into pruning hooks;
nation shall not lift up sword against nation;
neither shall they learn war any more.
O house of Jacob,
come, let us walk
in the light of the Lord!

Romans 13:11-14 (NRSVue)

Besides this, you know what time it is, how it is already the moment for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we became believers; the night is far gone; the day is near. Let us then throw off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light; let us walk decently as in the day, not in reveling and drunkenness, not in illicit sex and licentiousness, not in quarreling and jealousy. Instead, put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

The Word of God for the People of God.

Thanks be to God!
