- Which story of Jesus interacting with everyday people stood out to you most, and why did it stick?
- Jesus treated interruptions as opportunities. Where in your life do interruptions usually frustrate you instead of invite compassion?
- Jesus consistently chose people over comfort, tradition, or reputation. What gets in the way of us doing the same today?
- Jesus defines “neighbor” as the person who needs you. Who might God be inviting you to truly see this week?
- What is one simple, intentional action you can take this week to reflect Jesus’ love in an everyday relationship?

Key Verse: Luke 10:27 The man answered, “ ‘You must love the LORD your God with all your heart, all your soul, all your strength, and all your mind.’ And, ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’ ”
